The Limits of the Image!

Zoom Out on your own body, Mister VTR!

GYAAAA!

キン肉マン

A Team Kinniku Release

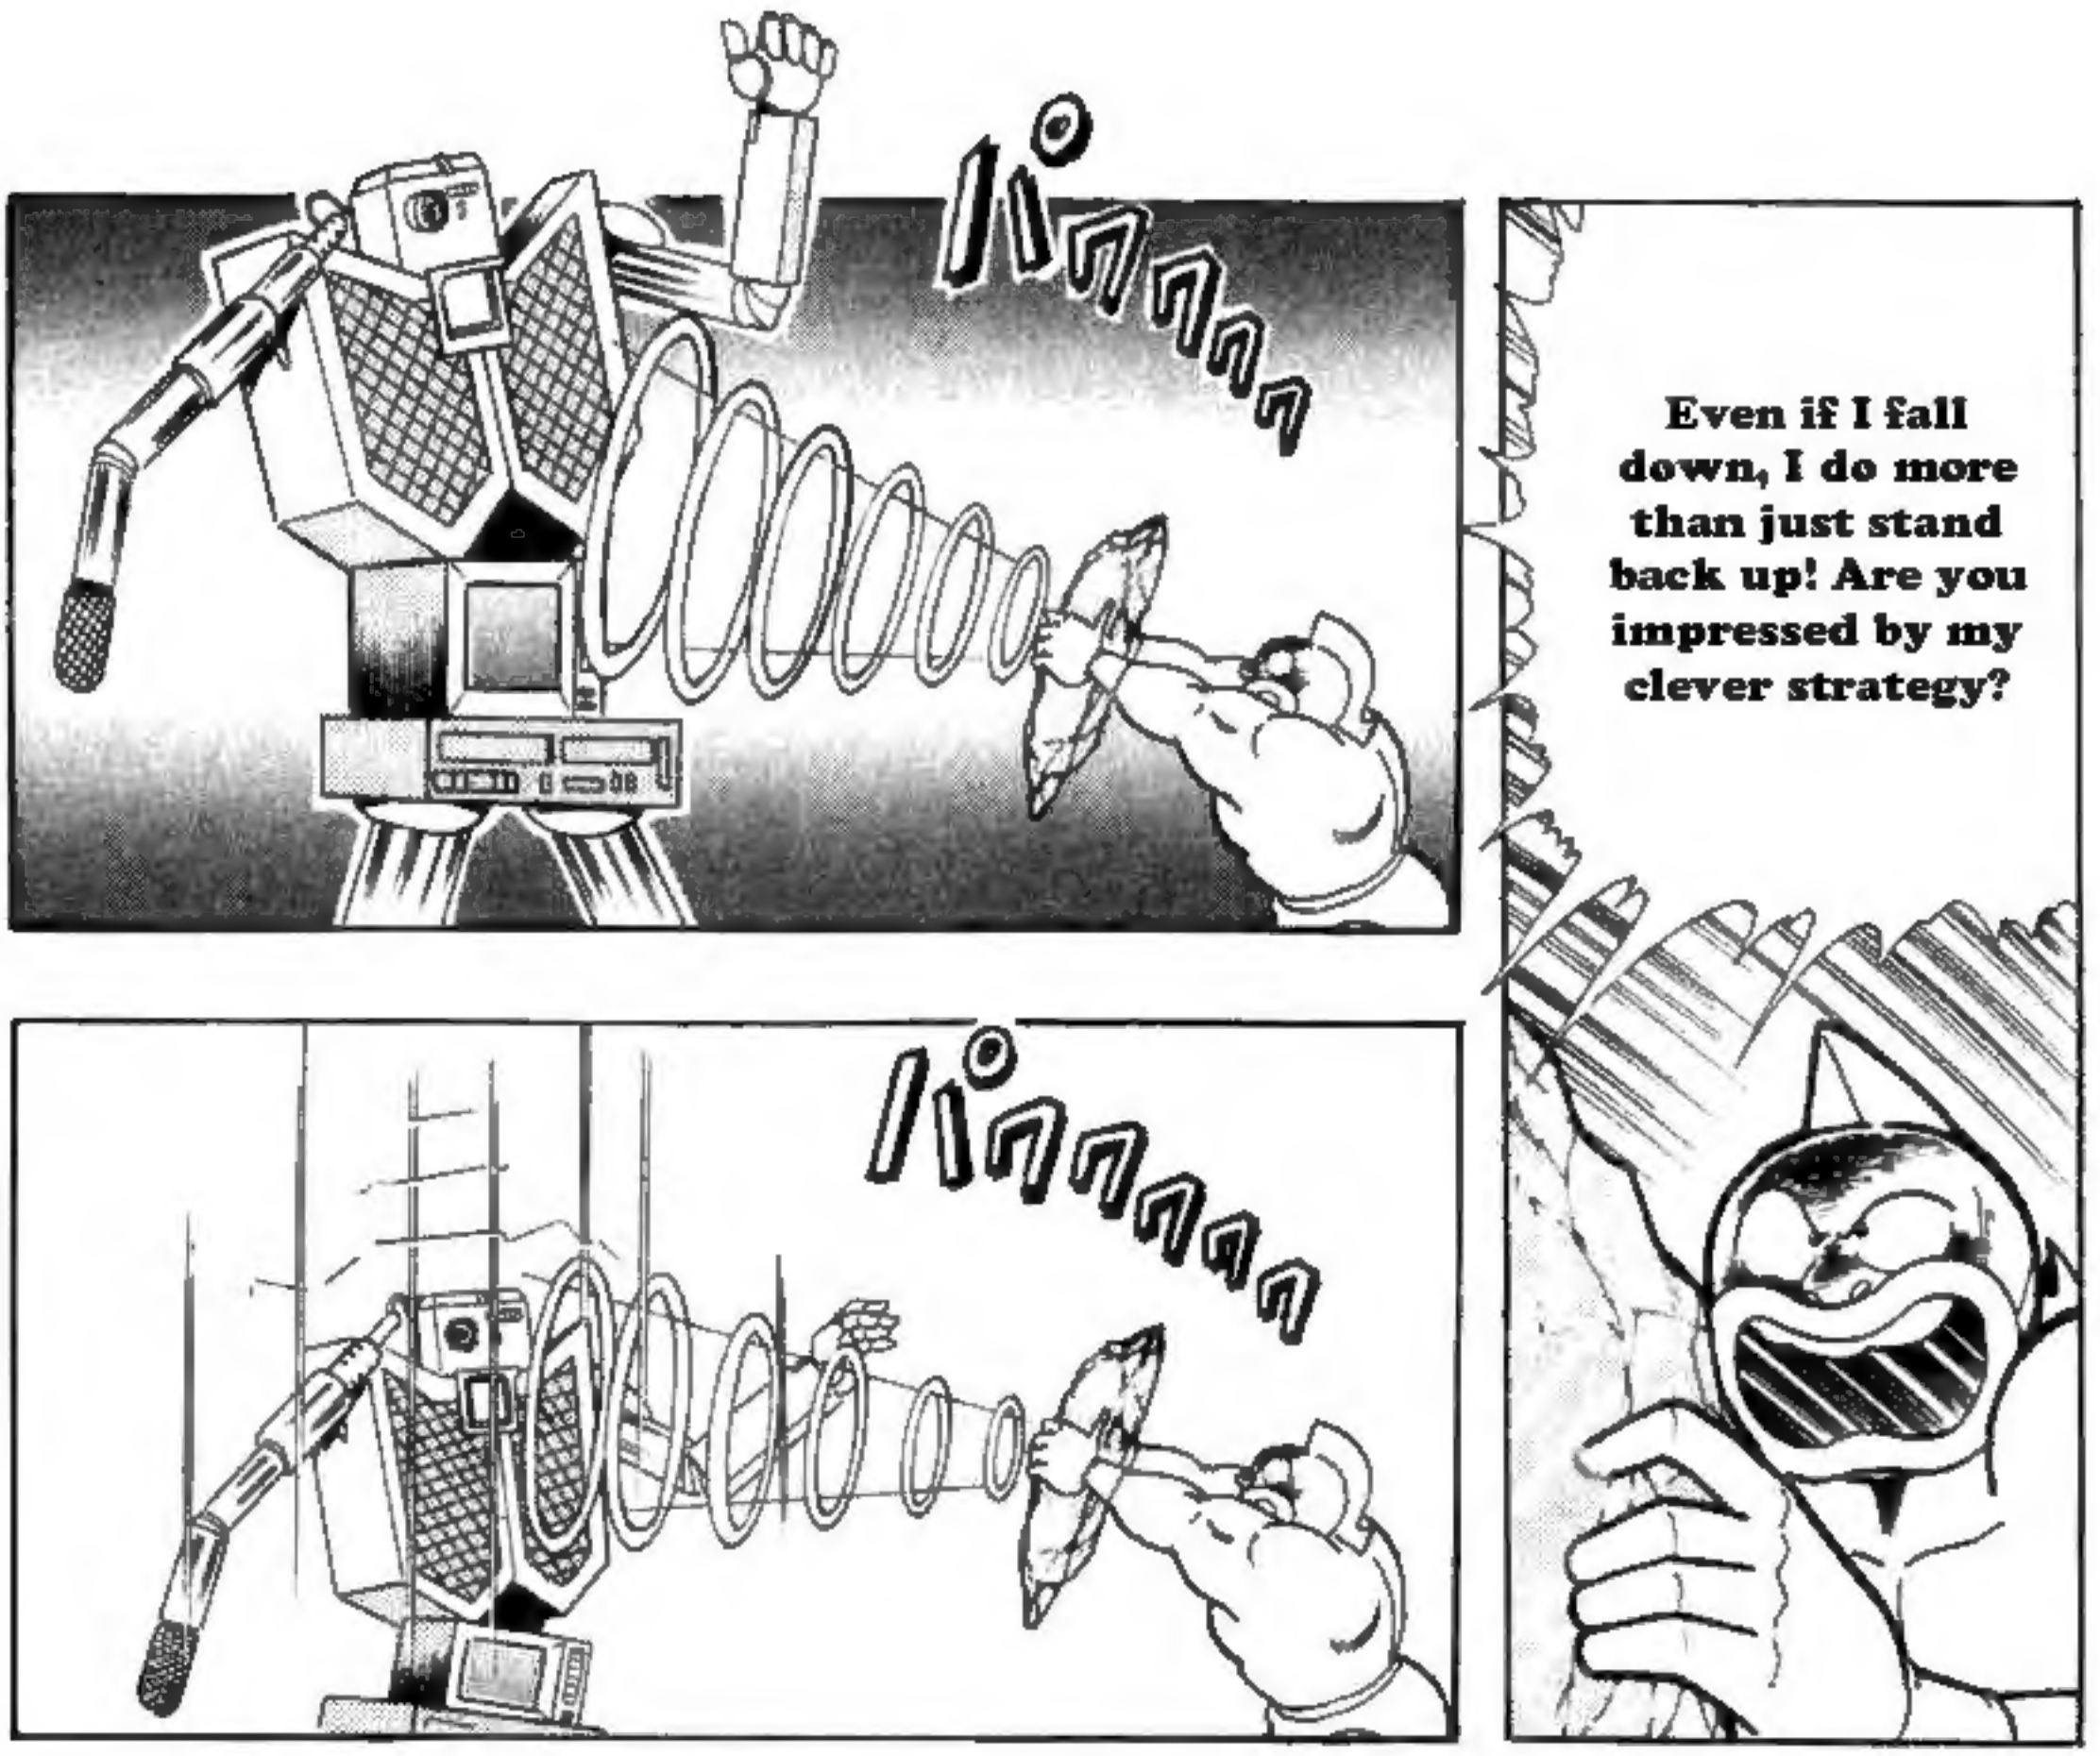
Mister VTR isn't afraid of the ice chunk, he's afraid of his image reflected in it!

Is something wrong? Mister VTR seem terrified of the iceberg piece that Kinnikuman is holding up!

Vister VTR's Zoom Out technique is a move that shrinks all of the objects that are the being recorded by the camera lens on his face!

Thus, when the Prince uses a chunk of ice as a mirror, Mister VTR will record himself as the target!

If he can make the target's body smaller, then it makes sense that he'd be able to shrink his own body if it were the target!



ﾊﾟﾝﾝﾝ
Even if I fall down, I do more than just stand back up! Are you impressed by my clever strategy?
ﾊﾟﾝﾝﾝﾝ
Hurry up and release your Zoom Out and turn our bodies back to normal, or soon you'll be even smaller than me!
Mister VTR's body, which has been set up as the target of his Zoom Out, is rapidly shrinking!
Zoom Out Release!
ﾋｭﾝ
Hieee, I can't take this anymore!

Uwa!

ゴゴゴ

Prince!

You seem to be tiring out after the consecutive fights with Hawkman and myself.

Ugh.

ガク・

Since my power will also run out shortly, I'll use all of my remaining power to show you hell on Earth!

This is good for us.

Ugh...

Scene Changer!

カチャ

Mister VTR's final Scene Changer is a giant volcanic zone!

It's a suicide attack! Prince, run!

Giant masses of lava are falling into the ring from the volcanos!

I have to defeat him somehow...

Me... Meat, I understand, but if I run now, I'll lose the match...

Prince!

Uwaaa!

ENGLAND

TEXAS

Kinnikuman is down after being hit by the lava mass and isn't getting up!

You can do this, Kinnikuman!

Hehehe... You shouldn't be worried about me...

Ka-kakaka, well? Are you in pain? Has the volcanic hell finally gotten to you?

Kinnikuman hasn't given up on this match yet!

Hiyah!

I'm only in pain when my allies are injured!

Uwa!

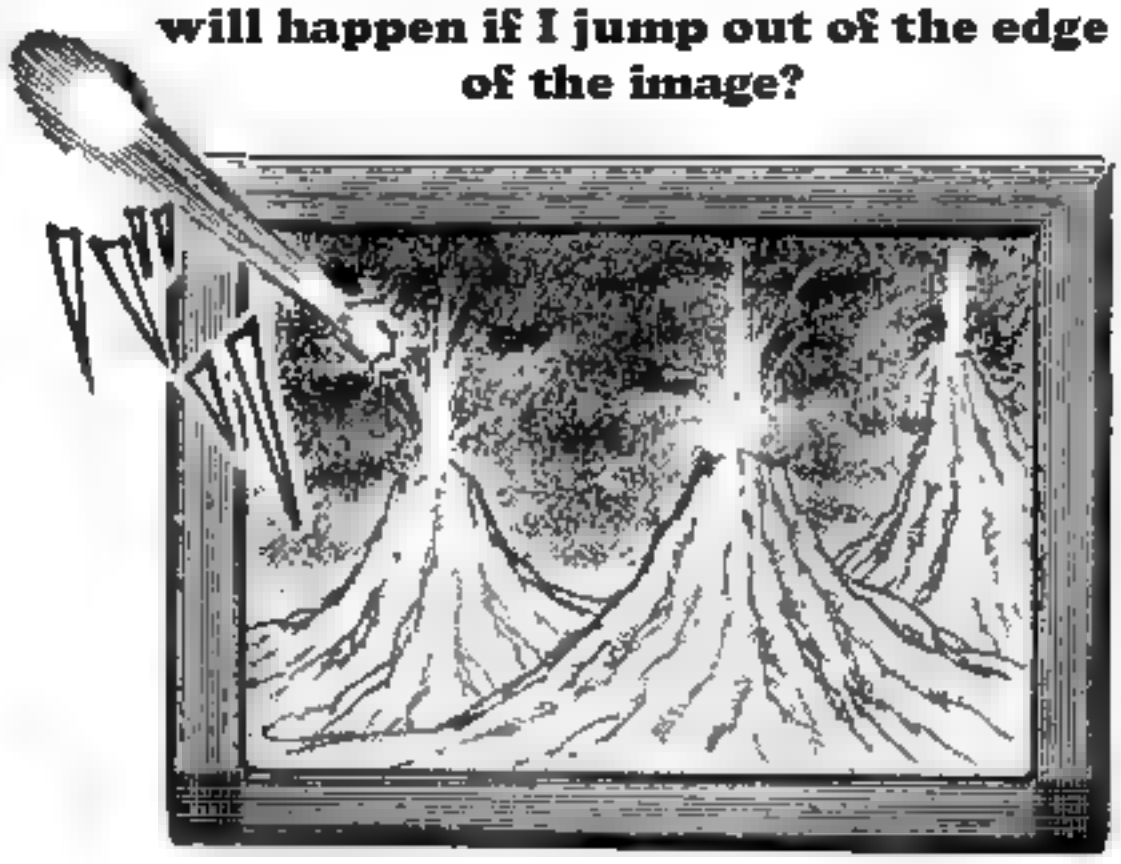
Kinnikuman has put VTR into a Kinniku Buster!

However, it's still an artifical world. It has it's limits!

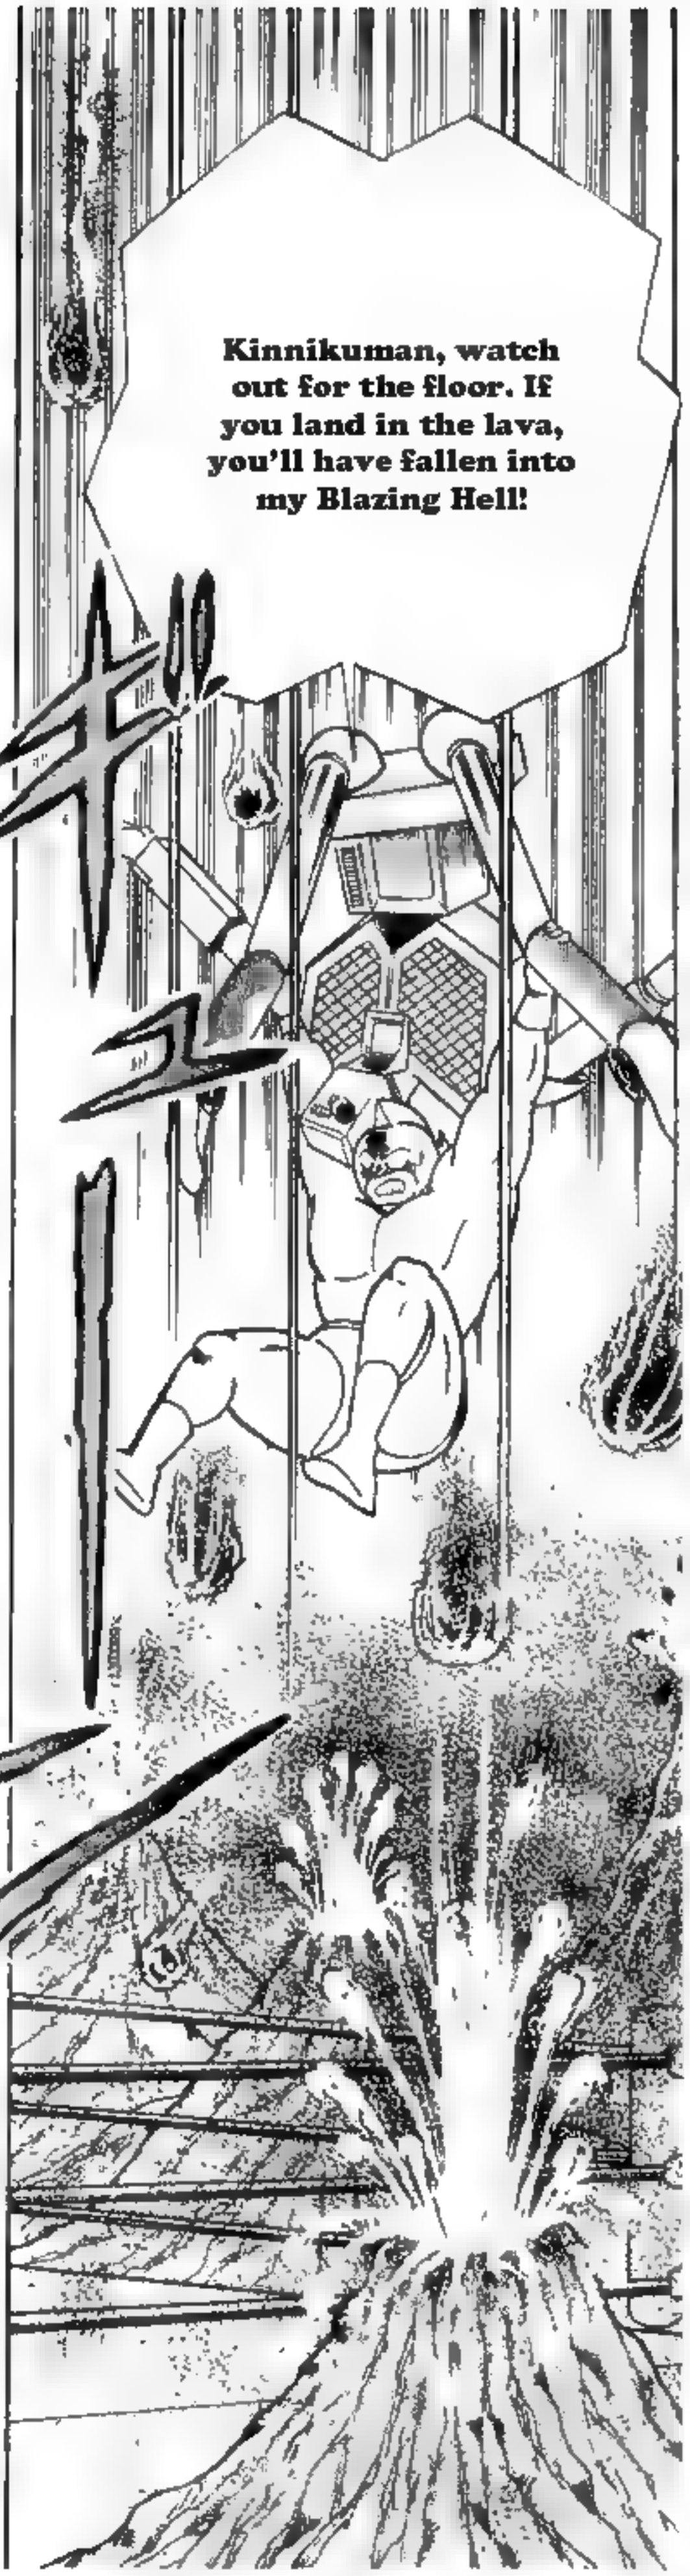
Mister VTR, the worlds you create with your Scene Changer truly are amazing!

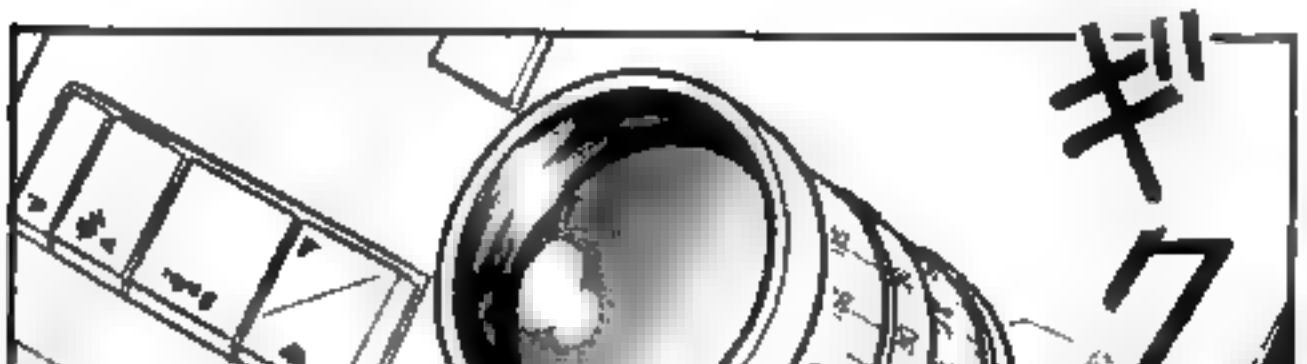
What!?

The origin of the worlds you create are the pictures on the slides. In other words, there's nothing in the world beyond what's shown on the slide. If that's the case, what do you think will happen if I jump out of the edge of the image?



Kinnikuman, watch out for the floor. If you land in the lava, you'll have fallen into my Blazing Hell!





He made us think that he was going to use the Kinniku Buster, but now he's ascending into a Neo-Kinniku Buster!

The Neo-Kinniku Buster!

Why don't we find out!?

I've done it! That's the end of your Blazing Hell!

Hiyah!

Ooh!

Gya!

The arena has returned to normal!

While falling, Kinnikuman has grabbed Mister VTR's neck with his legs and placed both arms into a Chicken Wing! What is he doing!?

That's stance is...

Ugyaaaa!

Chojin Hanging!

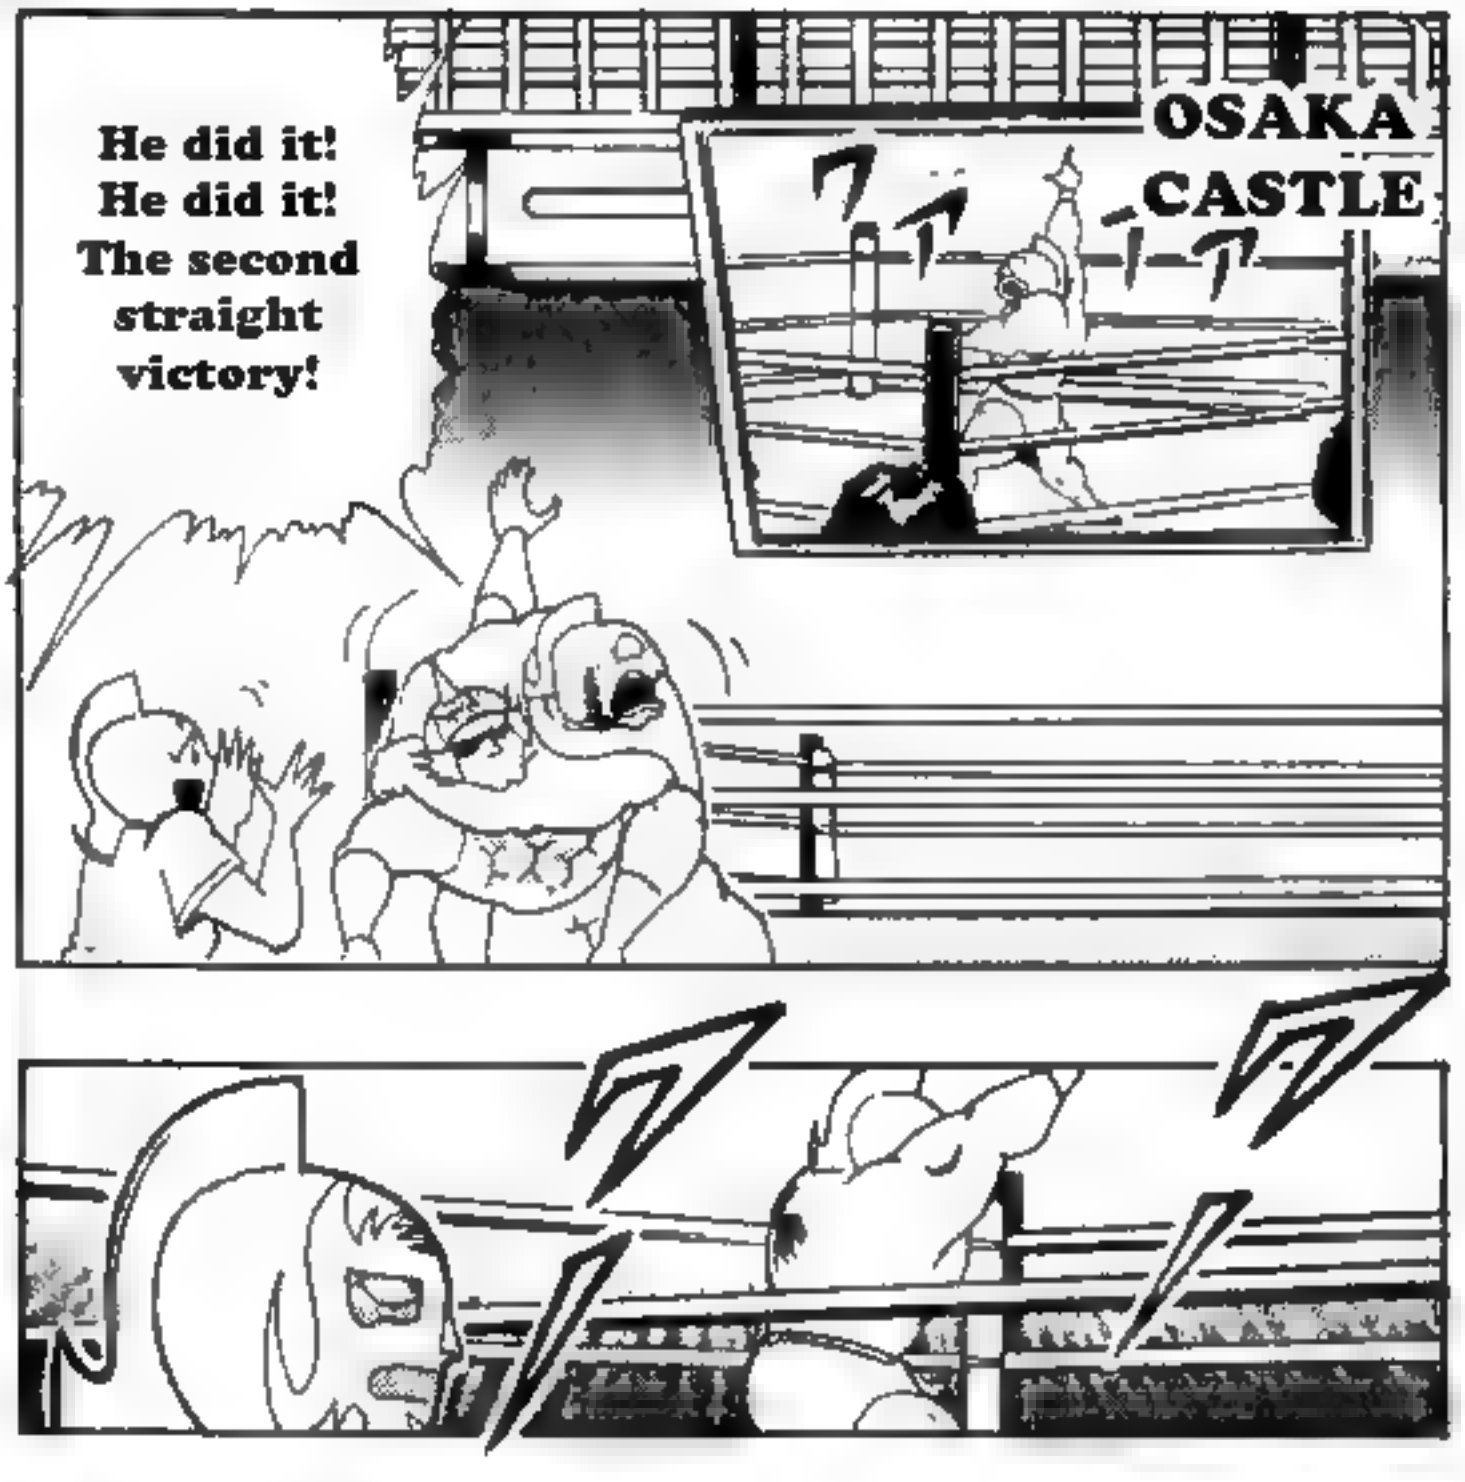
A second victory for Kinniku-man!

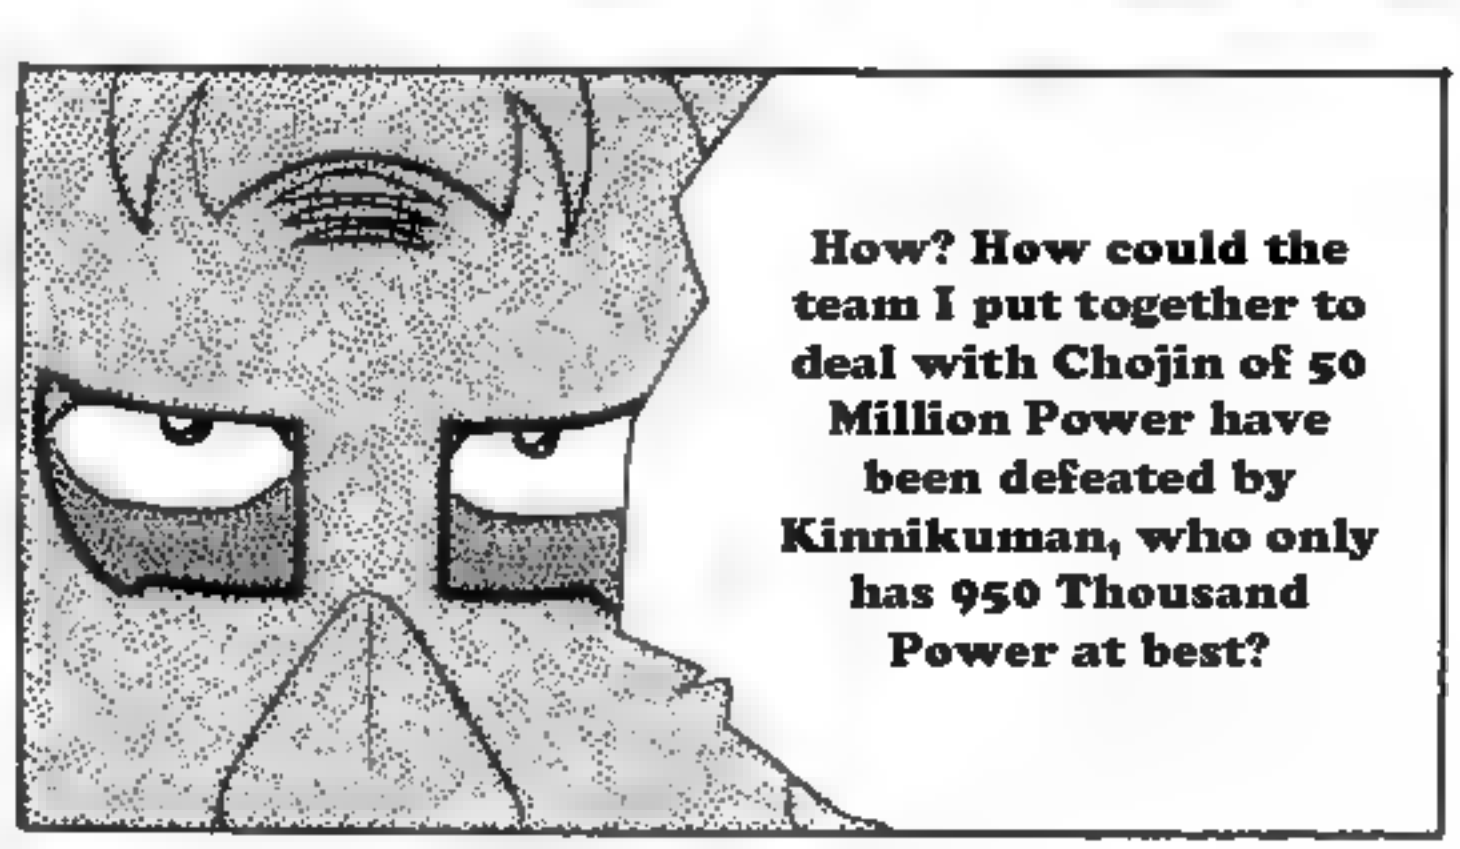
Oooooh!

With his hidden technique, Chojin Hanging, Kinnikuman has smashed the formitable Mister VTR and is one step closer to the crown!

With both Hawkman and Mister VTR, his 950 Thousand Power was enough. However, at the very end for each of them, they were defeated by his X factor.

He did it! He did it! The second straight victory!





How? How could the team I put together to deal with Chojin of 50 Million Power have been defeated by Kinnikuman, who only has 950 Thousand Power at best?

Never! It will never come to that! There's no such thing as a Chojin who can surpass a god!

Kinnikuman's Burning Inner Strength is still growing. If you're not careful, it will surpass the 100 Million Power of the Evil Gods, starting with yours, Lord Mariposa!

The Burning Inner Strength ...

Of course, it's the Burning Inner Strength that broke the power gun that measures up to 50 Million Power!

Can we do that?

...we first need to get rid of that power.

In order to take Kinnikuman's life...

What are you doing...?

CLANG CLANG

Yes, thanks to me.

The "puppy" is Kinnikuman, and the "bones" are Kinnikuman's power!

The peppy died by having his bones removed, but there's not a single wound anywhere on his body!

Oh, the dog's bones...

Hiyah!

In the ring is the unwavering Kinnikuman glaring at his third challenger, Mixer Taitei!

note: "Taitei" means "the Great" or "Emperor"

Mixer Taitei throws a body blow as soon as the match begins!

Power Separator!

Owaaaaa!

Prince!

What a technique! Kinnikuman is spinning around inside of Mixer Taitei's body!

[illegible]'s Burning Inner Strength is too much for me to do this alone!

The attacking Mixer Taitei seems to be in pain, too!

Ugh...

Ugh...

Don't worry, Mixer Taitei. The Five Evil Gods, including myself, will lend you our power to defeat Kinnikuman!

The Five Fated Princes, who should be scattered around Japan for the Scramble for the Throne Surivival Match, are all in an evil conspiracy to defeat Kinnikuman!

RIGHT!

Although we're all rivals, all of us share the common goal of defeating Kinnikuman... Let's call a truce for the time being to help Mixer Taitei!

FULL-STRENGTH EVIL FRIEND-SHIP POWER!

Kinnikuman Power Seperation: Complete

Scramble for the Kinniku Throne 11

涙の超人墓場の巻

The Tearful Chojin Graveyard!

Kinnikuman, who has just taken Mixer Taitei's Power Seperator in the ring, has disappeared!

Don't worry, Evil Gods! Kinnikuman's power, which has been taken away by my Power Seperator, has been sealed away in the Great Temple of Evil in the Celestial World!

I think that the Power Seperator was too powerful and blew away not only his power, but his physical body, too!

So, Mixer Taitei, we know where Kinnikuman's power went, but where is his body?

Haha!

That Kinnikuman guy is pitiful... not only does he get his power stolen, but he doesn't even manage to leave a corpse!

I'm certain that there's nothing left of his body, now!

Unforgivable... As a fellow Chojin on the battlefield, this act can't be forgiven!

HA-HAHA!

ENGLAND CHOJIN WARRIOR SCHOOL

...I must go. I know that this is the middle of class, but...

How dare Chojin warriors do that!?

Hold on, Kinniku-man!

You're all...

All of us here in your class are friends, but to go save someone you're truly worried about is true friendship!

...but they murdered a Chojin for their own selfish desire!

These beings are gods...

ゴゴゴゴ

ゴゴゴゴ

Unforgiv-able!

ゴゴゴゴ

My many achievments as a Chojin warrior over the last ten years have lead to acknowledgement from many people and has given me these medals naming me as Chojin Staff Officer...

I'm throwing away my medals!

But I'll betray the hopes of all of these people, all because of the friendship with that one person...

As a Staff Officer, you are a neutral party. You cannot go to assist Kinnikuman.

Uuh...

We have been dispatched by the Chojin Committee to watch over you. Are you sure you want to do that?

Hold on, Terryman!

Huh?

Teacher, hurry up and go!

What are you doing!?

You guys!

Geh!

Ugh...

You're all terrible. I'll fight you for doing that to Prince!

I'll pay you back for this later!

Hurry and save Kinnikuman!

Please go quickly!

KUMAMOTO CASTLE

Wah!

Hey, I'll deal with you later!

...and confirm that Kinnikuman's power is sealed in the Great Temple of Evil!

Alright, the first thing we need to do is check the Celestial Realm...

ﾌﾗﾗ!

Watchers of the Great Temple of Evil, has Kinnikuman's power been sealed away safely?

Hmm

Kyaaa!

Lightning has broken through the roof!

Kinnikuman's power will not be restored. It's all sealed away here in the Great Temple of Evil.

Please relax, Evil Gods.

See it with your own eyes and relax. Ha-hahaha!

Which of us will get the power of the crown?

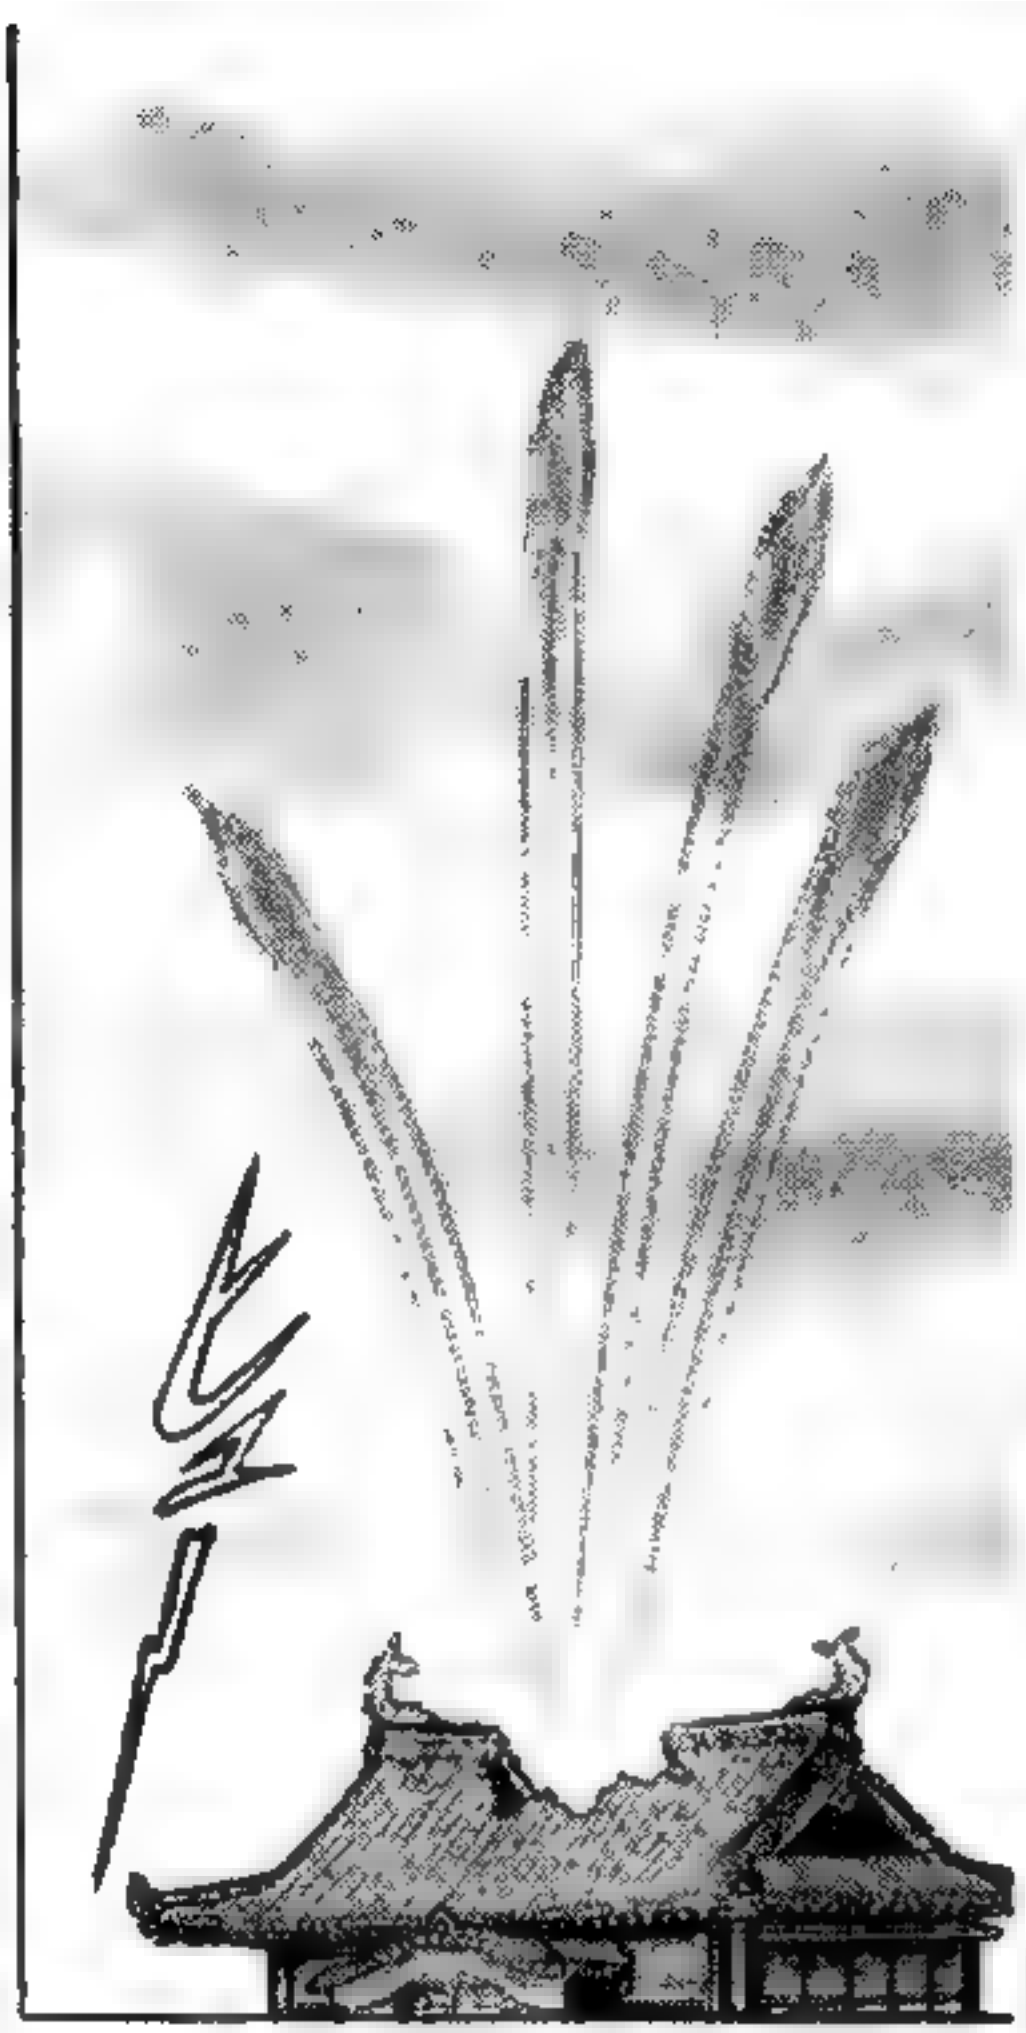
With that done, shall we Evil Gods return to our five-man contest?

Now we don't have anything left to worry about.

Aah!

I'm sorry, King... Queen...

Prince ended up like that and I couldn't do anything to stop it!



That's strange, how could this be...?

What's wrong, temple guards, did something happen?

Right. Suguru is a body who was born with great luck. This time, I know he'll be back.

Don't cry, Meat. Suguru doesn't have any reason to die yet.

But...

Kinnikuman's Burning Inner Strength should have been 70 Million Power... but the power containted at the Great Temple is only 605 Million, 50 Thousand Power... In other words, 950 Thousand Power is missing!

We need to tell you this...

What!?

The missing 950 Thousand Power... is in the Chojin Graveyard!

So where did his 950 Thousand Power go!?

Listen to me...

I saw it! Kinnikuman's 950 Thousand Power is wandering around in the Chojin Graveyard!

Mister VTR...

Last thing I remember was being caught in Mixer Taitei's Power Seperator, and somehow I woke up in this place...

CHOJIN GRAVEYARD

Geh! Sunshine!

But what's with all of the tomb-stones? Where am I!?

Geh, that's Brocken Jr.'s dad, Brockenman... and there's Watchman and Pentagon!

Over there is The Mountain, Junkman... and Atlantis!

Aren't all of you supposed to be dead?

This place is full of Chojin who died during a deathmatch in the ring!

Where exactly is this place!?

Hehehe... of course.

Let me tell you: You're in the Chojin Graveyard, a peaceful place where Chojin who die in the ring end after their struggles.

I still have unfinished business on Earth! If I die now, Meat will be left alone to fight a powerful Chojin by himself! Please send me back!

So then, that means I came here when I was killed by Mixer Taitei?

Now be quiet, you have to work here, too!

Hey, that's impossible. This is a world you can never leave once you've entered!

Ugh...

Ha-hahaha, speaking of the Chojin Graveyard, they say it's even more difficult to escape from than the 4th Dimension or a black hole. Even Kinnikuman, with his remaining 950 Thousand Power, won't be able to get out of there!

ｹﾞｯ

Geh!

KUMAMOTO CASTLE

Alright...

Meat, we'll give him 15 more minutes. If he can't escape by then, you're going to have to enter the ring.

It's not completely impossible to escape from here... As long as you work hard enough to get the attention of the graveyard manager.

Haa
Haa

ﾊｧ
ﾊｧ

Every time they approve of your work here, they give you a sphere called a "Life Ball". Once you get four Life Balls, you can return to the world of the living. However, it isn't easy to get that many of them, since it takes between half a year and 100 years for people to do it.

But can you really leave here just by working hard?

I didn't think I'd meet you here, Kinnikuman.

Warsman!

I only have three, but that is enough to open the exit halfway.

Take my Life Balls.

That's no good. Even if it takes me half a year, that's enough time for the Evil Gods to take over.

I'm thankful to you from when the Six Devil Knights were in my body... consider this my way of saying "Thank you".

But if you give these to me, you'll...

For the time being, I'll accept them!

Go, Kinnikuman! If I can collect them again, I can still return to the world of the living someday! I need to give these to you now, since you'll never get another chance at this battle!

But...

HELP

Screw Driver!

Gyaaa!

Ooh, we have a runner!

Kinnikuman only has five minutes left to return to the ring!

KUMAMOTO CASTLE

I just have to put the Life Balls into the four holes...

This is the entrance and exit from the Chojin Graveyard!

カタ...

Geh, the tomb is opening wider!

No... I only have three, but that isn't opening the tomb wide enough...

Ooh, the tomb is opening!

ゴゴ...

Warsman!

Go, Kinnikuman! I'll take care of the guys chasing you!

Warsman! I couldn't have done it without you!

Hurry!

Right!

Hey, stop!

Go, Kinnikuman! I'll take care of the guys chasing you!

I'm... sorry!

衝撃の敗北!!の巻 (しょうげきのはいぼくのまき)

Warsman, I can always count on you to save me!

If someone escapes from the Chojin Graveyard, it'll ruin our reputation!

Scramble for the Kinniku Throne 12

A Shocking Defeat!

Don't worry about me, Kinnikuman. I'm not a man who will just give up in this world of the dead!

A Team Kinniku Release

Kinniku-man...

They're waiting for you...

KUMAMOTO CASTLE

Kinnikuman only has a minute left before Mixer Taitei wins by ring-out, and Kinnikuman still hasn't returned from the Chojin Graveyard!

Kinnikuman has one minute left to return to the ring!

If only that were true...

Hey, Short Stuff! Once they declare Kinnikman to have lost, you're going to have to fight me next! You should be getting ready to die!

As a member of the Justice Chojin, I'm not afraid of getting hurt in a fight...

I'm sorry, Meat. You have to take one such a heavy burden with that small body, all because of that worthless Prince!

OSAKA CASTLE

It'll be alright, even if they are scary... If I were to die, that wouldn't be so bad, as long as I knew that Prince was alive...

Kinnikuman has 30 seconds remaining to return to the ring!

Hi-hihi!

That Kinnikuman, who managed to defeat both the Devil Chojin and Perfect Chojin, finally met his match against the power of a God!

Ugh.

I can't find him. I know I saw Kinnikuman wandering around the Chojin Graveyard earlier, but now I can't find him anywhere!

What's wrong, Mister VTR!?

Uooh!

What?

It's harder to escape from than the 4th Dimension or a black hole!

You mean that he somehow escaped from the Chojin Graveyard!?

Don't rush me!

I finally found the return gate to the real world.

Kinnikuman has 10 seconds left to return to the ring!

It doesn't matter if he comes back or not. I'll just send him right back to the Chojin Graveyard with my Power Seperator!

My body is burning up!

Mixer Taitei, Kinnikuman's return gate to the real world won't be in the sky!

The gate is...

What?

Mister VTR's monitor!

GUH!

Heheheh, what a stylish entrance.

I'm sorry for making you worry, Meat.

Prince, I knew you could do it!

It would have been better if you had stayed in the Chojin Graveyard!

Did you forget?

Ugh!

Hehehe... I can match your confidence...

My body always becomes stronger when I'm faced with unfavorable odds against evil Chojin like you!

I'm going to try to defeat your Kinniku Driver, your ultimate special move until now!

Kinnikuman is preparing a Kinniku Driver!

That's the special move used to defeat many powerful enemies, including Ashuraman, Akuma Shoung, and the Hell Missionaries!

Mixer Taitei has annonced that he's going to defeat Kinikuman's Kinniku Driver!

Kinnikuman is performing the Kinniku Driver, taking Mixer Taitei's challenge head-on!

Kinniku Driver!

Geh!

What's going on? The falling speed of the Kinniku Driver doesn't have it's usual force!

Insulting my special move is... Alright, I'll accept your challenge

However, the Burning Inner Strength's power had been extinguished from your body!

Your Kinniku Driver is a special technique that gets its power by adding your Burning Inner Strength to your 950 Thousand Power!

I'm doing it the same way I always do, but...

Right, the moment he took the Power Separator, the Burning Inner Strength was sealed in the Great Temple of Evil in the Celestial Realm!

Well, you really shouldn't be predicting the outcome right now.

What are you saying? Even without the source of the Burning Inner Strength, my 950 Thousand Power will still be enough to slam your body against the mat!

It's my turn again...

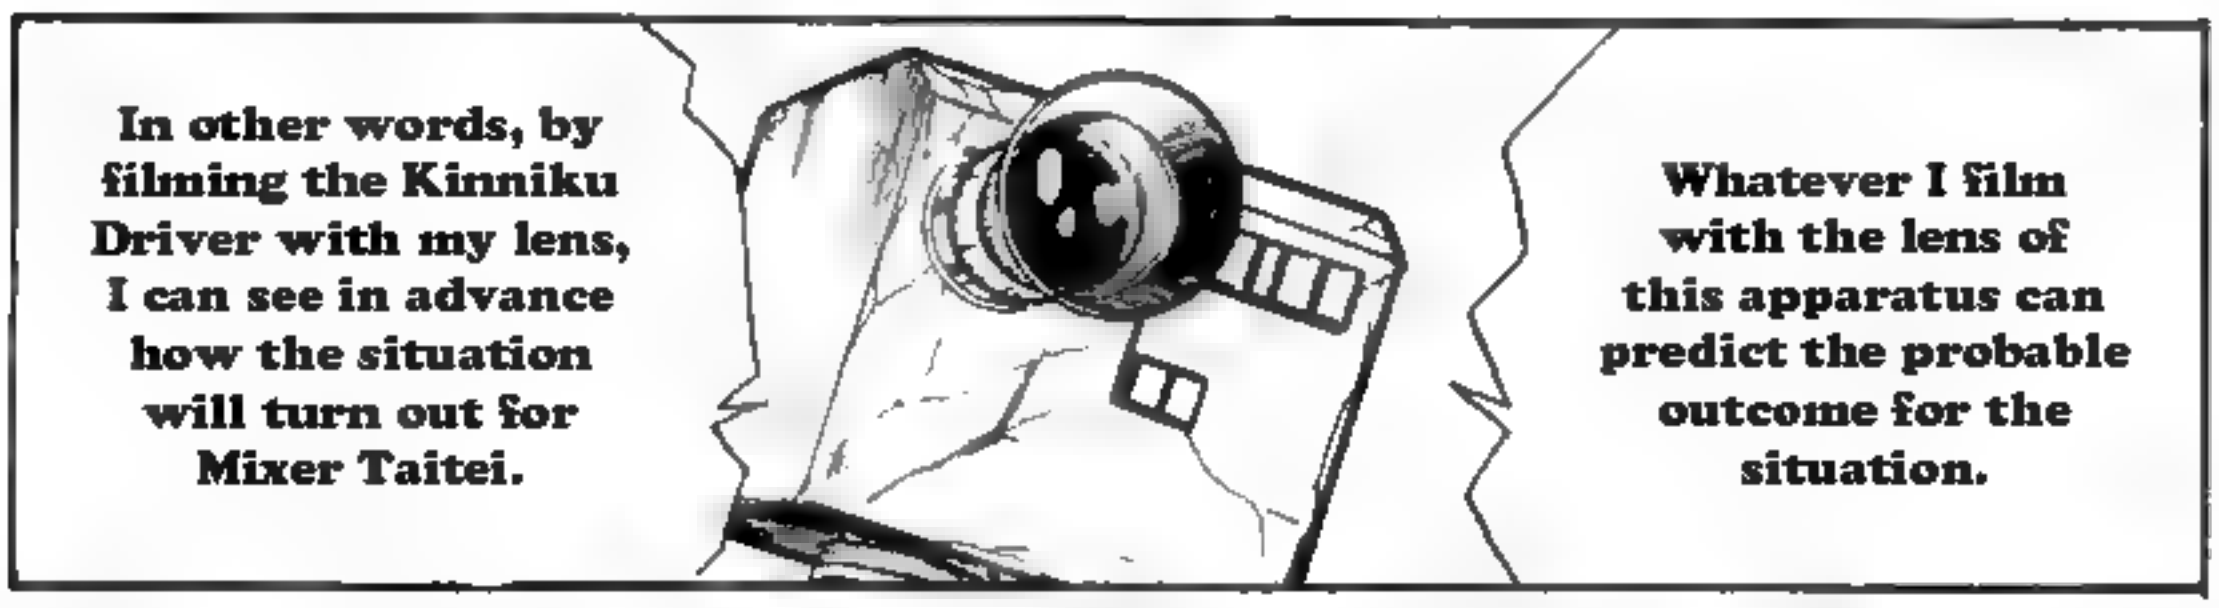
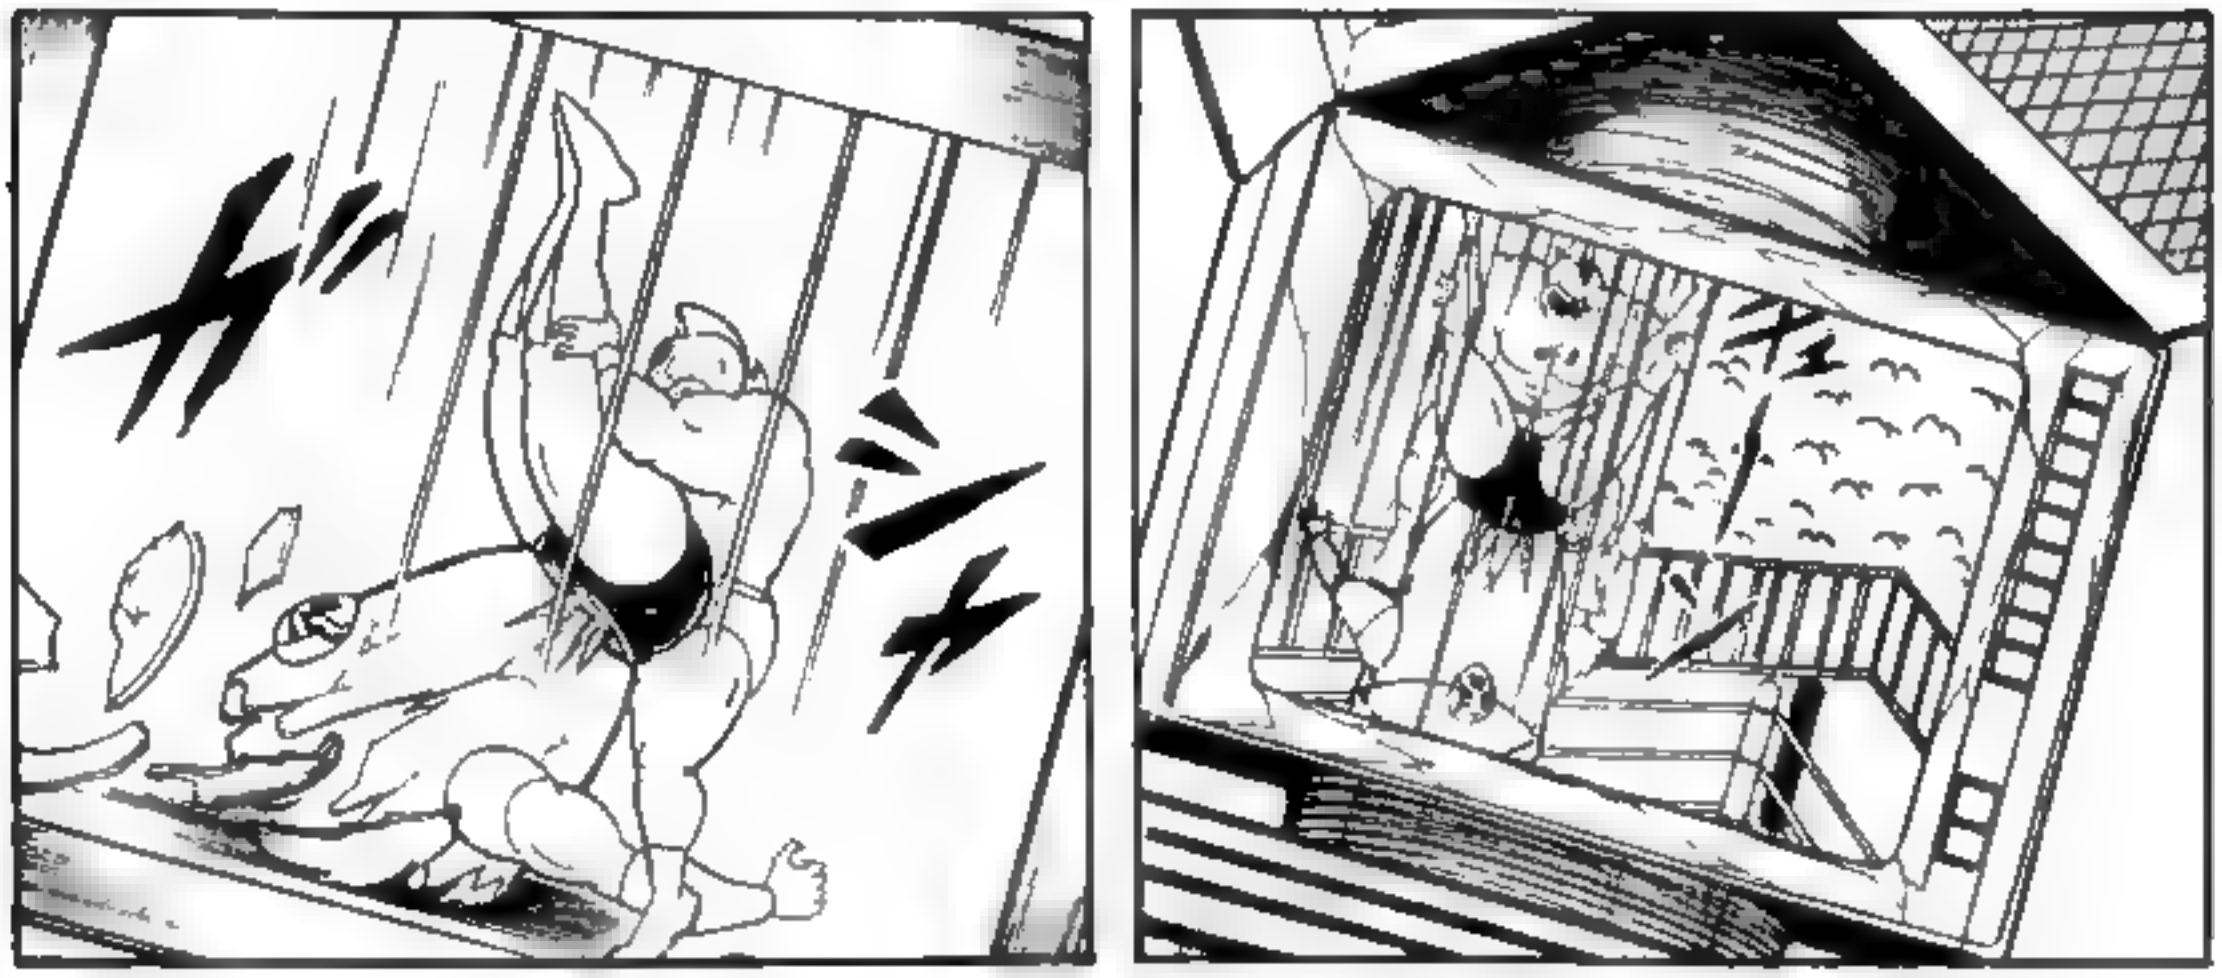
Situation
Predition
Apparatus:
On!



In other words, by filming the Kinniku Driver with my lens, I can see in advance how the situation will turn out for Mixer Taitei.
Whatever I film with the lens of this apparatus can predict the probable outcome for the situation.



Even with only 950 Thousand Power, he'll still do enough damage to KO Mixer Taitei.

Well then, it's going to turn out exactly like Kinnikuman says.

The Kinnikun Driver holds pleanty of power, even without the Burning Inner Strength!

Hyahyah, do you see?

The Situation Prediction Apparatus also has an editing function!

Well, Kinnikuman, I wasn't going to tell you this, but...

All I have to do is take the frame that's the moment on the technique's impact...

Then cut it out with a pair of scissors...

...not even in reality.

Now the scene where you slam Mixer Taitei into the canvas won't happen.

Don't do it, Prince! Stop the Kinniku Driver!

Now.. I can fianlly...

Die!

Pass on...

With that, another of the world's evils has been defeated by the Kinniku Driver!

It looks like evil survived!

I really thought... That Kinniku Drive would end it...

Defeating Kinnikuman without his Burning Inner Strength is easier than taking candy from a baby!

Ha--
Ha--
Ha---

Kinnikuman, the advance guard of Team Kinnikuman, has failed to get a third straight victory due to his damage from the last two fights!

I knew I should have replaced these shoelaces!

 note: In Japan, shoelaces breaking is considered a bad omen.

It looks like we've come for the same purpose...

Robin Mask!

Whenever your shoelaces break, that's always a bad sign.

Right!

It seems like something bad has happened to Kinnikuman. Let's hurry!

Now, it's Short Stuff's turn!

I don't think Warsman sent you back just so you could win. I think he's just happy that you're alive. You need to rest, now.

I had returned to the real world after all of the trouble Warsman went though to sacrifice his own life...

Right, this is one of the screws from Mixer Taitei's pivot. I took it out during the match.

It looks like a screw, but...

Meat, you need to see this...

If you can do that, you should be able to break his body apart.

That means that you have to hit the back of his head with one good blow.

Right!

One blow. Just one blow...

The General of Team Kinnikuman, Alexandria Meat, enter the ring!

Scramble for the Kinniku Throne 13

Meat's Desperate Fight!

With Kinnikuman defeated, General Alexandria Meat is finally entering the ring!

A Team Kinniku Release

...but what sort of fighting will he show us in his first time entering the ring?

Meat has always been kind to Kinnikuman as his chaperone...

On top of that, what can that tiny kid do against a Super-Heavyweight like Mixer Taitei?

No matter how many times he's chaperoned Kinnikuman, Meat is still just a brave novice in wrestling.

Right! We can't entrust the fate of humanity to this small fry!

This fight isn't just a matter of Kinnikuman taking the Throne. This is the fight that will determine wether or not the Earth will be ruled by the Evil Gods.

Everybody, I need to put everything I have into this fight, so could you please quiet down...?

ROBIN! ROBIN!

TERRY! TERRY!

.....

The Justice Chojin should still be Robin Mask and Terryman! Get out of the ring and let them fight instead!

Those humans really are selfish people. They're always so harsh when the Chojin are trying to help them.

OSAKA CASTLE

GUA!

Right...

Hey, no matter how many times you say that, you two have to remain neutral.

Fine, if that's how it is, then I'll be Meat's replacement!

And here's a warning from me, too: Get out of the ring before you get hurt.

Ha-ha, aren't they such a kind audience? Short Stuff, they think it's better if you leave the ring.

Switch! Switch!

Turn back, Meat!

Then, obediently admit the defeat of Team Suguru Kinniku!

Meat, I won't stop you from leaving the ring...

Prince...

Prince was hurt and bled several times in his fights today, but he never whined about wanted to leave the ring and surrender...

Ugh...

Don't move, your bleeding hasn't stopped.

...and yet he's willing to surrender this match without letting me fight!

You Justice Chojin really do care too much about these people, and end up hurting yourselves in the process, which is what we like best!

Ha---
Ha---
Ha---

I really am the weakest link of the Justice Chojin!

Aah! One of the screws is missing from his mixer section!

All I need to do is get one good blow to the back of his head. If I can do that, then the body of this machine guy should fall apart.

That's from when one of Mixer Taitei's pivot screws was taken out during the match earlier.

Does this Short Stuff really plan on facing me...?

Right, I don't have any reason not to win this. Prince has already gotten him ready for me.

Mixer Taitei, finish off the short kid at once so we can head to Himeji Castle and fight Team Zebra!

If Team Kinnikuman loses this, they'll have nothing left!

TEAM MARIPOSA
CENTER:
MIXER TAITEI
vs.
TEAM KINNIKUMAN
GENERAL:
ALEXANDRIA MEAT

Right, I know that.

Hiyah!

.....

Meat has avoided Mixer Taitei's strong Toras Kick!

What the...?

The unyielding Mixer Taitei is throwing a random fire of Toras Kicks!

You...!

You're quick, Short Stuff!

But Meat's body isn't taking a single hit!

Meat somehow got a high-class technique!

That defense method is Robin Mask's specialty!

Gah!

It's true that I don't have experience fighting in the ring...

My body has learned how to use some of the techniques on it's own!

おおお!!

But thanks to being there with Prince and watching so many high level matches being fought...

Mixer Taitei, who just lost his temper, is trying to catch Meat!

I let my guard down against this brat, but that was a mistake!

Eeeh!

Hiyah!

Meat, after escaping between Mixer Taitei's legs, has tripped his opponent by grabbing his legs!

Meat's Kid Torpedo!

That swiftness is Terryman's...

Taaah!

Woah!

He's doing it! Meat, who we wrote off at first, is wrecking havok in the ring!

It's a bit late for that now, idiots!

You may be a bit small, but you're a splendid Justice Chojin!

We've changed our minds, Meat!

What's going on? Why isn't Mixer Taitei's body falling apart?

Eeeeh...

Right, I have to hit the back of the head where the screw came out...

Harder...

Your attack was too weak. You need to hit him harder!

...But you looked away during a match! You're still not a wrestler like the others!

That was a nice shot, Short Stuff.

Ugh...

Meat's covered in blood!

...but can't do anything once he catches his opponent. That's the problem with being a lightweight.

Meat can outrun the giant Mixer Taitei with his nimbleness...

What's wrong, Short Stuff? What happened to that power you had earlier?

Mixer Taitei is throwing a barrage of slaps at the unresistant Meat!

Please don't do this, Prince...

Stop, that's enough! I don't mind not being the King of Planet Kinniku! Now you don't have a reason to keep hurting Meat!!

Ha-----
Ha-----
Ha-----

.....

Thinking about it like that somehow makes it easier to deal with the pain...

I'm feeling it. I have those pained eyes that Prince and the others always have whenever you fight those villainous Chojin for Justice...

Ha!

Watch carefully, this is the end of Meat!

Meat!

The power it possesses only took the Burning Inner Strength from someone as big as me, but if Meat, with so little power, takes the separator, it'll suck out all of his power and kill him!

Geeeh! That stance...

It's the Power Separator, which stole the Burning Inner Strength from Kinnikuman!

キュ!!

Die!

!!

By propping his arms and legs on the walls inside the mixer, Meat has avoided the spinning blade!

Meat!

Th... this fool is...

Meat-Style Burning Inner Strength, learned directly from Prince!

Ugh... He got away...

Right!

Hey, why are you taking so long to deal with this kid? Finish him off, now!

Gate-Closing Crash!

Right! I won't let anyone ever fall into the mixer ever again!

Huh?

Prince has many special techniques, like the Kiniku Buster, Kinniku Driver, and Chojin Hanging, but none of those are my favorite...

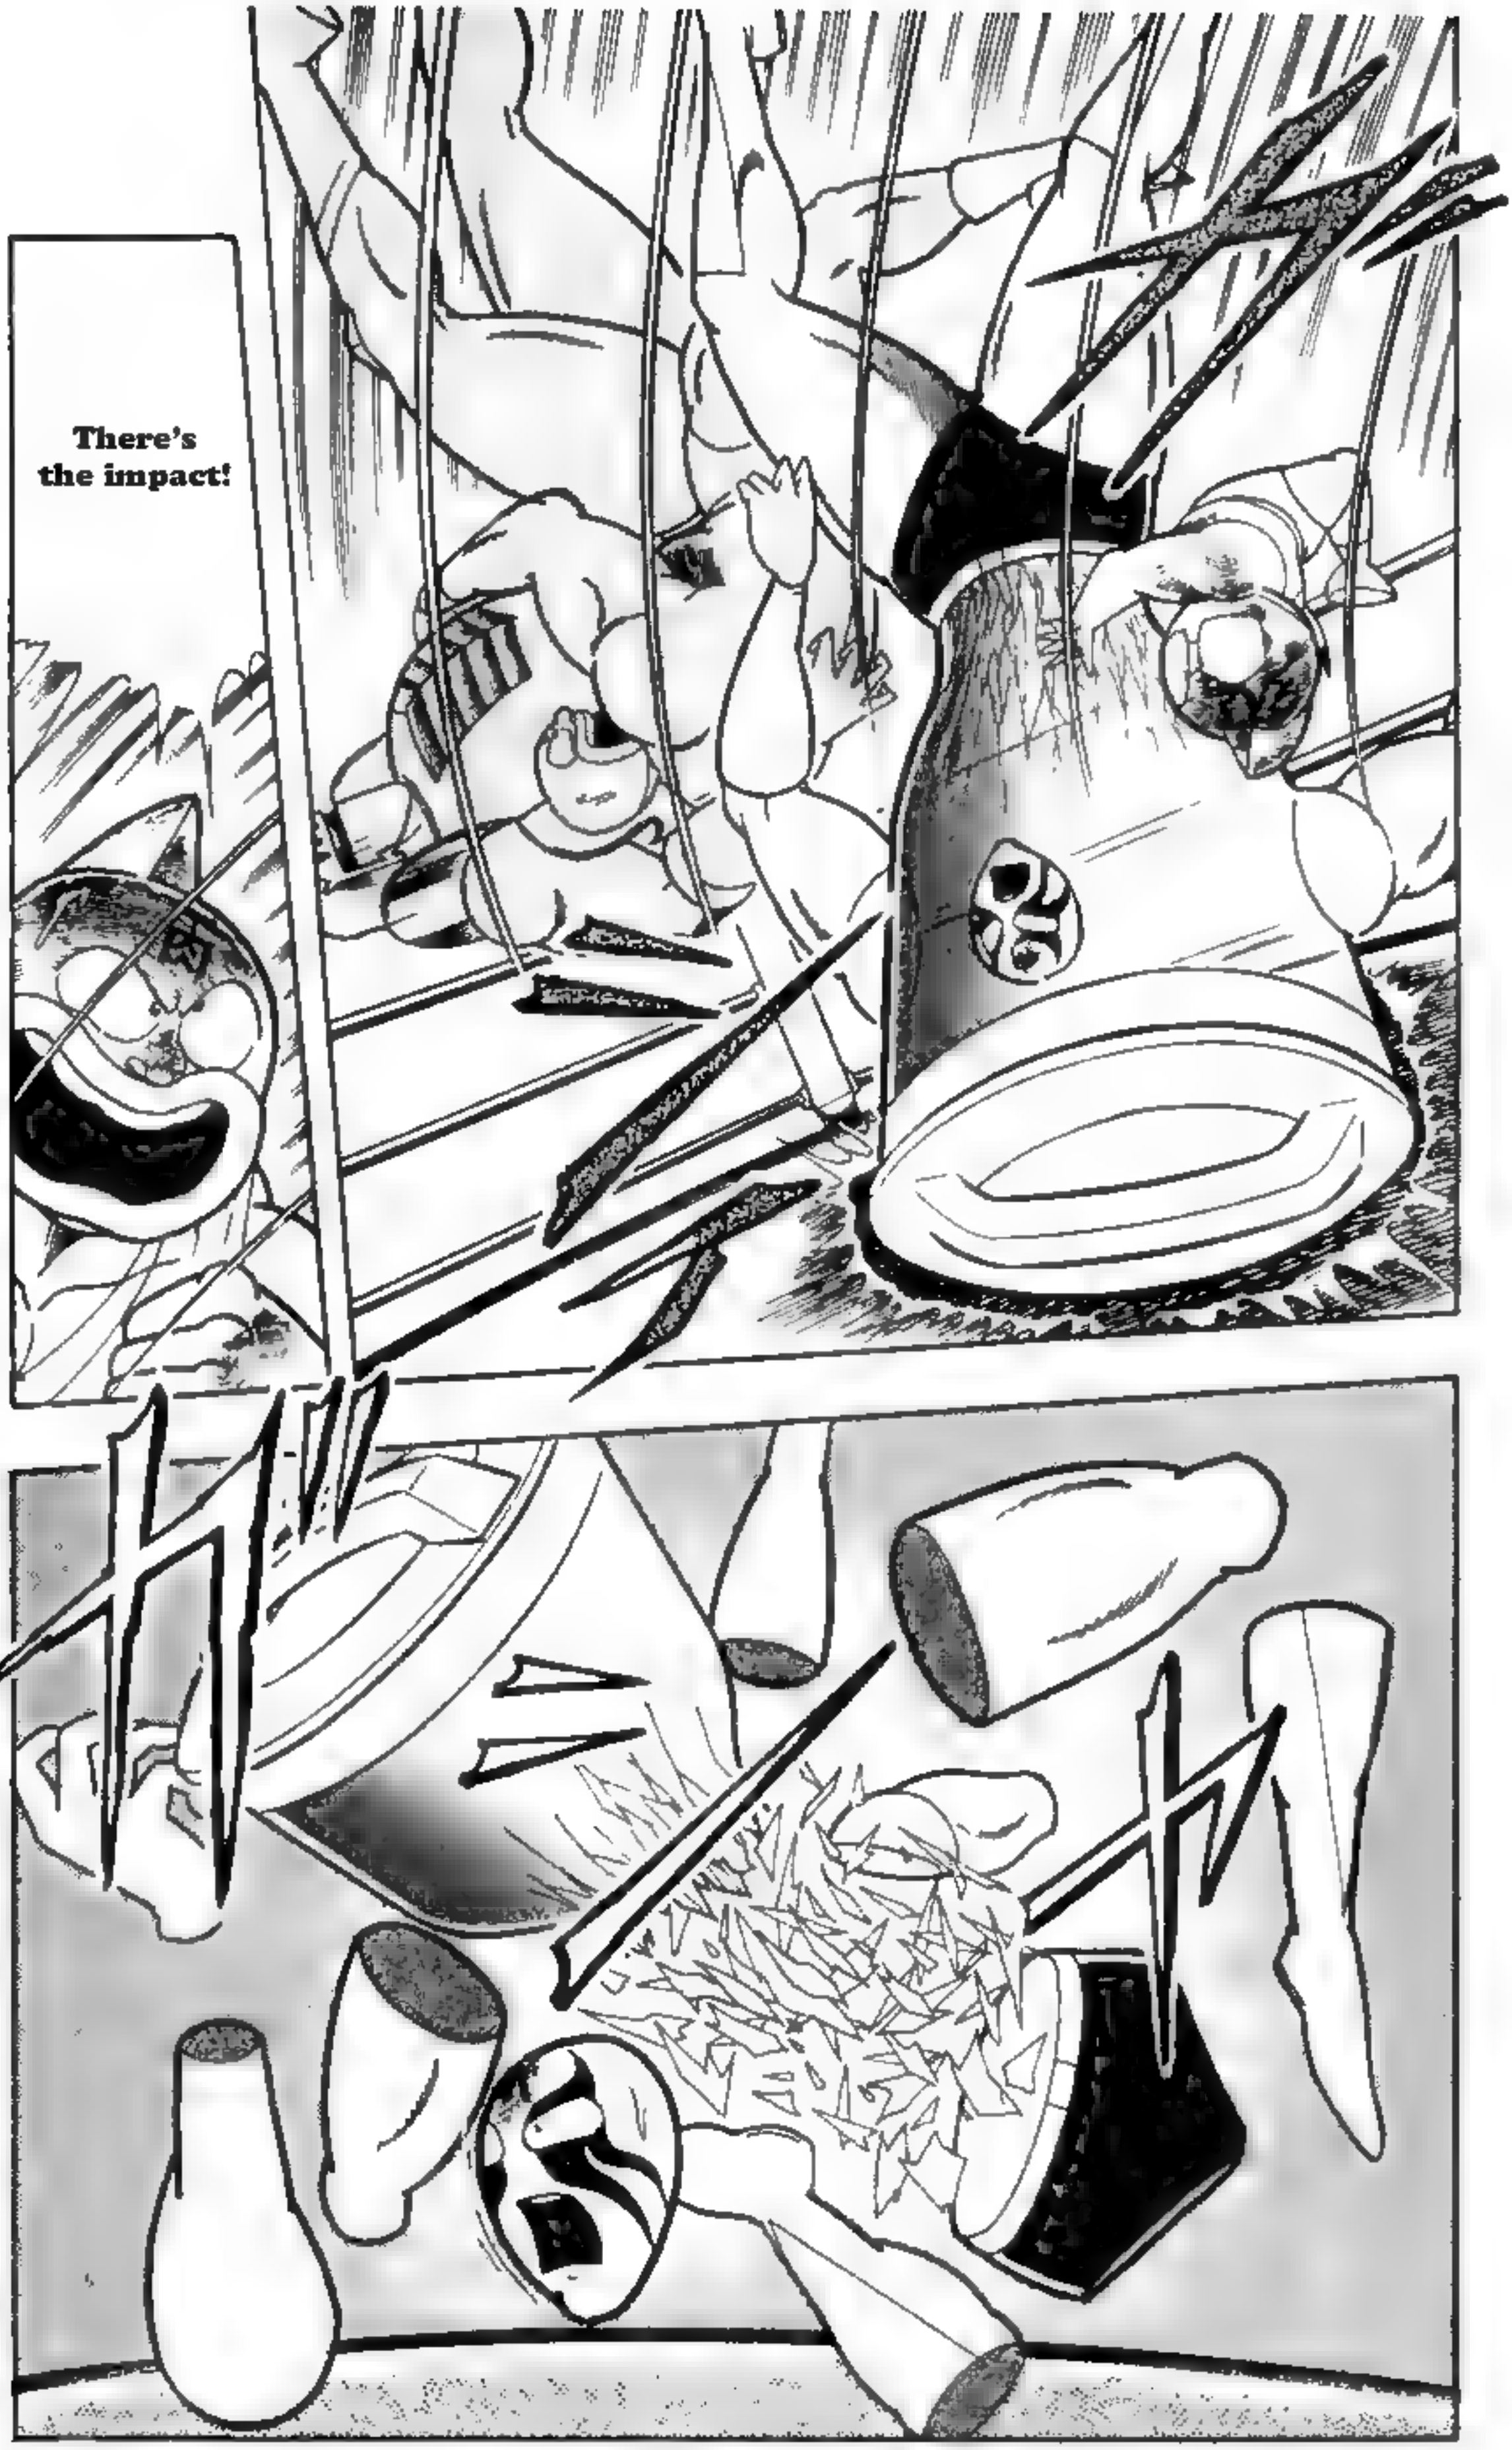
Gyaaaah!

My favorite among Prince's techniques may be plain, but it's a beautiful flip that gets used at the decisive moment...

Ugh!

Meat is grabbing Mixer Taitei's back!

IT'S HIS BACKDROP!



There's the impact!

Alexandria Meat has just pulled the ultimate upset, smashing vetran wrestler Mixer Taitei, who defeated Kinnikuman, with a single Backdrop!

Meat, you've done well...

Good work!

With that, Team Kinnikuman has gotten through their third fight!

Glad...

I'm... so...

I was able to help you, Prince...

OSAKA CASTLE

With the fall of Meat, Team Kinnikuman...

Aah...

At that moment, Terryman and Robin Mask, who were on their way to help Kinnikuman, had just crossed into Japan and were heading to Meat and Kinnikuman's location in Kumamoto.

What's wrong, Terryman?

Uwa!

Kumamoto is still a long way away...

Hurry, Terryman! Even though we've made it to Japan, we've only gotten through Hokkaido and are headed into the Tohoku region!

We can't afford even a moment's delay, now!

Meat must have fallen after Kinnikuman...

It's my shoelaces again...

Where is that screaming coming from?

Since we're in Fukushima Prefecture, this castle must be Aidzuwakamatsu Castle...

It's... that castle...

If that's Aidzuwakamatsu, then Kinnikuman Big Body and Super Phoenix should be inside for the Throne Succession Match, just like Kinnikuman!

Here at Aidzuwakamatsu Castle, the match between Golemman, Advance Guard of Team Big Body, and Mammothman, Main Body of Team Super Phoenix.

Nice going, Golemman! We may be able to turn this around if we can defeat him!

Mammothman of Team Phoenix has been struggling with Golemman, bringing his previous two straight wins into question!

Guo!

Golemman has thrown the giant Mammothman with a Front Neck Chancerly Drop, taking advantage of his superhuman strength!

Good news, Mammoth-man.

Meat of Team Kinnikuman has just defeated Mixer Taitei, Main Body of Team Mariposa, giving them their third victory.

So Team Kinnikuman has finally gotten their third victory?

Golemman is dive-bombing with a Flying Neck Drop from the top of the corner post!

Goa!

PAOOO!

Playtime's over!

Hiyah!

Mammothman has grabbed Golemman with his elephant trunk!

He's doing a hand-stand while holding Golem-man's legs?

Hehehe, hey Big Body, it's too early for you to let your guard down. This is the beginning of the end...

The canvas can bite into a Chojin's neck like a living creature...

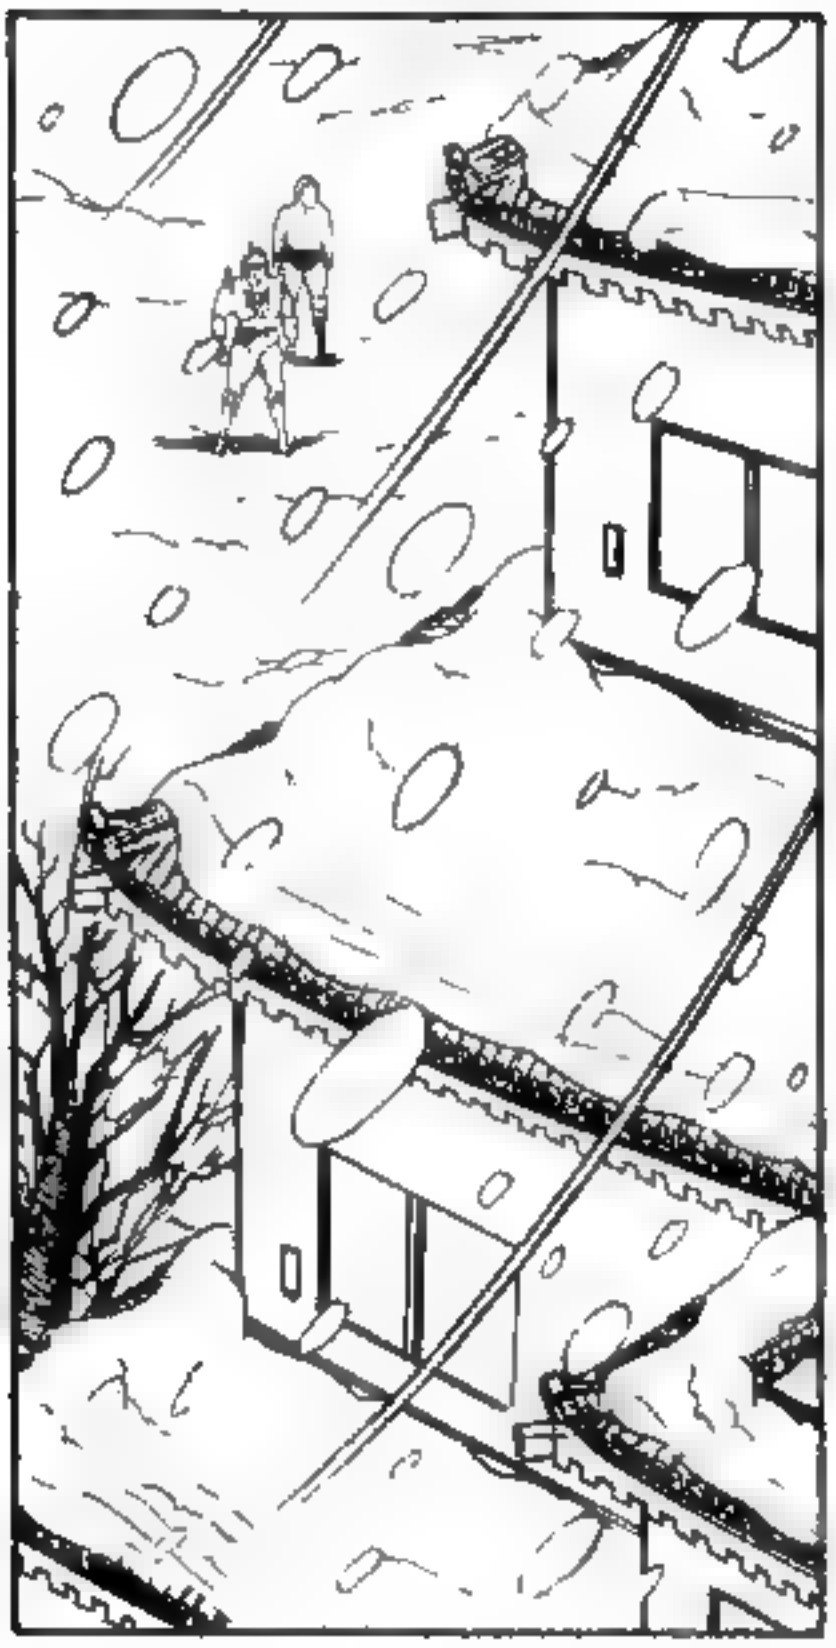
His his neck as a fulcrum, Mammothman is sqeesing Golemman's body while he's stuck in the canvas!

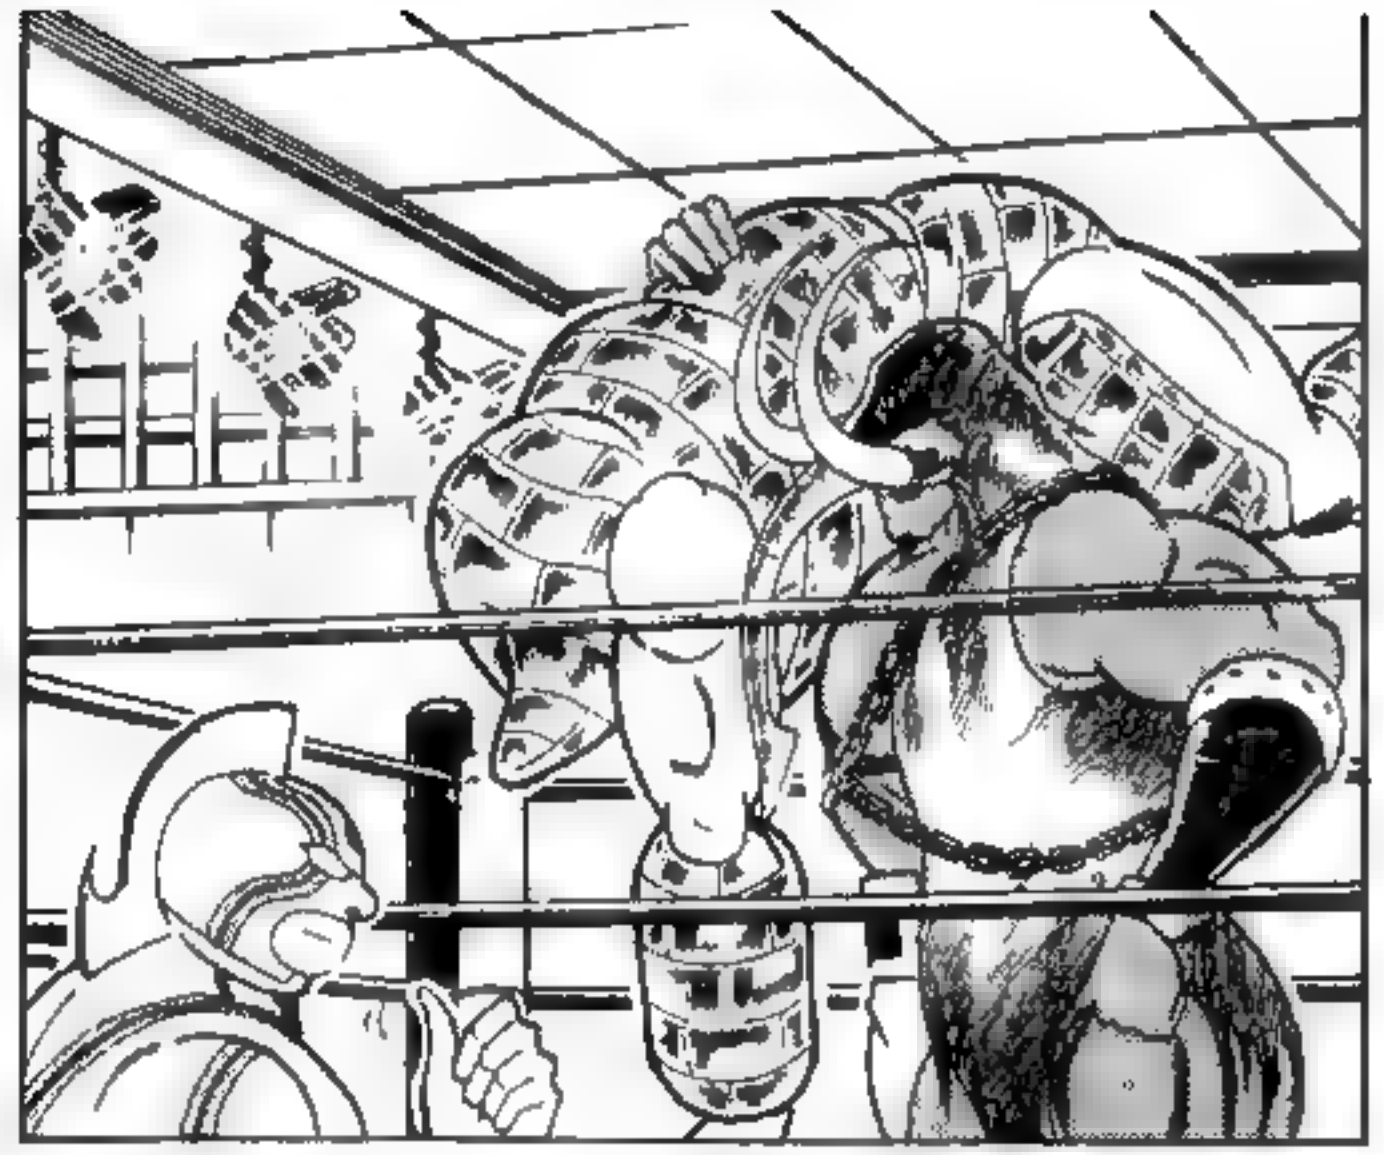
Kya!

W... was that an inverted hanging? That was Mammothman's bold technique for beheading an opponent!

Just like Team Kinnikuman in Kumamoto, Team Phoenix has just gained their third victory!

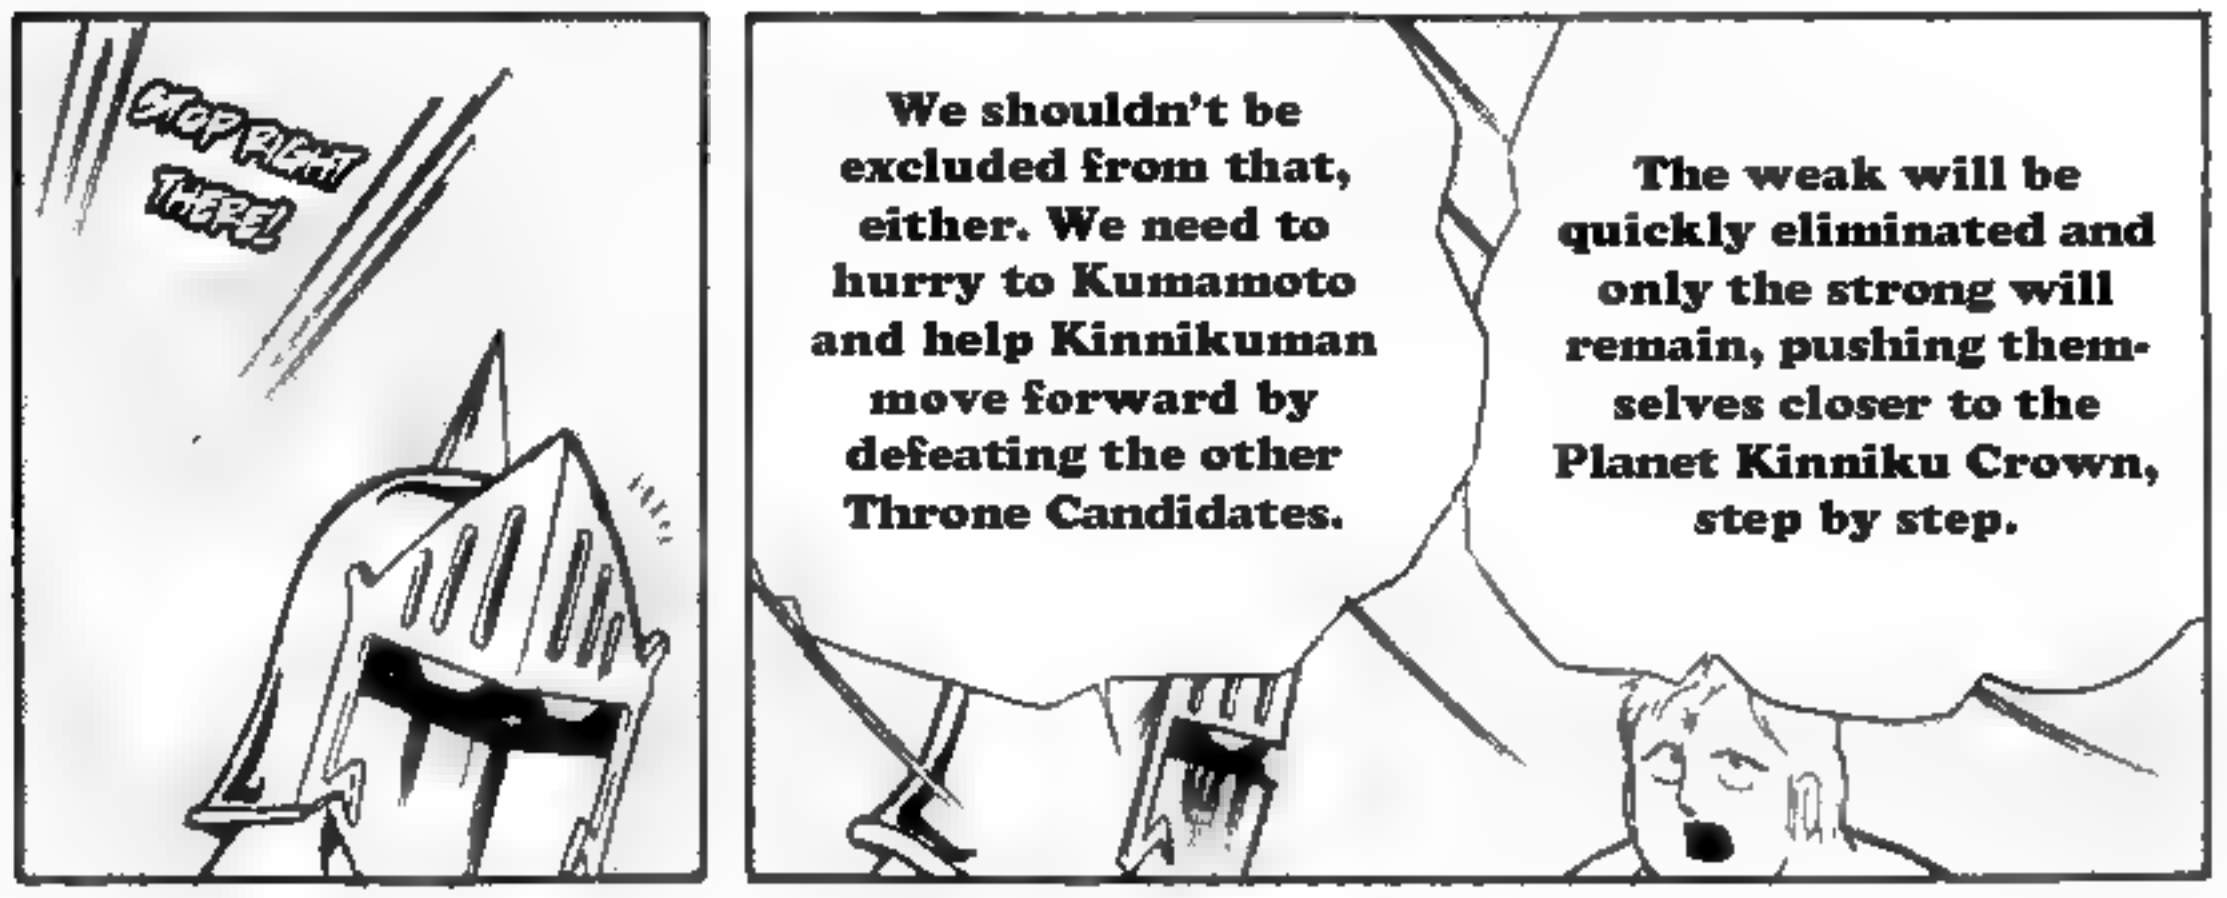
This technique is called the Ghost Canvas!





...was just waiting for Team Kinnikuman's third win in Kumamoto.
Mammothman, who seemed to have been having trobule with Golemman in the first half...

Team Super Phoenix must have gotten their third win and stunned the crowd with their power, despite a slow start to the round.
That match is probably over...
The castle was filled with sounds of the audience cheering a moment ago, but now it's gone dead silent...



STOP RIGHT THERE!
We shouldn't be excluded from that, either. We need to hurry to Kumamoto and help Kinnikuman move forward by defeating the other Throne Candidates.
The weak will be quickly eliminated and only the strong will remain, pushing themselves closer to the Planet Kinniku Crown, step by step.

We have told you this many time already, but both of you are in leaderely positions for younger Chojin, so we cannot let you interfere with the Throne Contest for Planet Kinniku. You are not approved to help Kinnikuman, so please return to your students!

The Chojin Police Corp...

Chief of Staff Robin Mask, Staff Officer Terryman, you're not going any further!

Yes Sir!

We are approved!

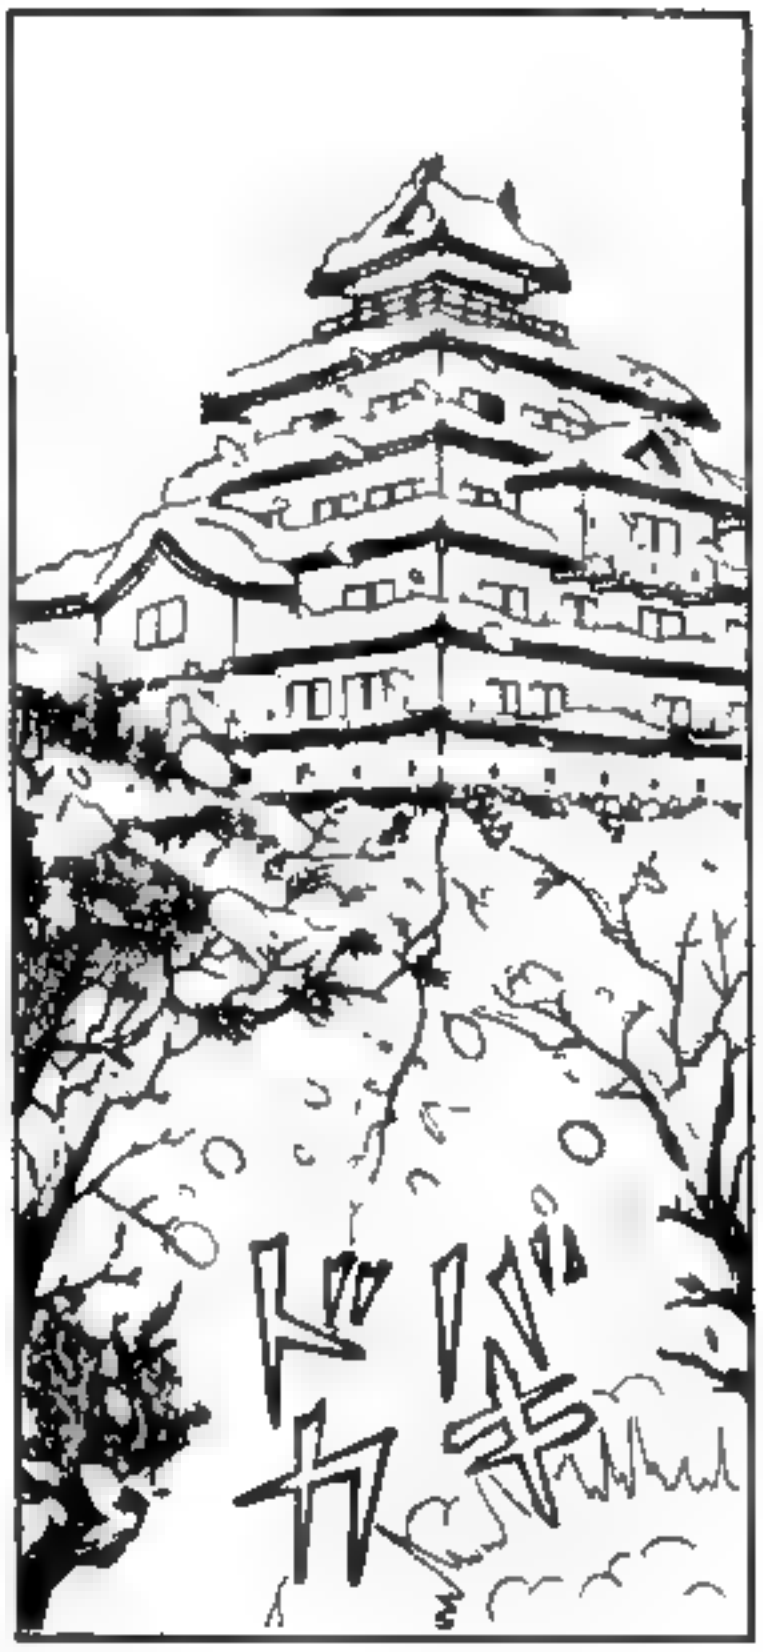
We're role model Chojin, so it's not even a choice!

We want them to grow up to be Chojin who show this kind of bravery and kindness!

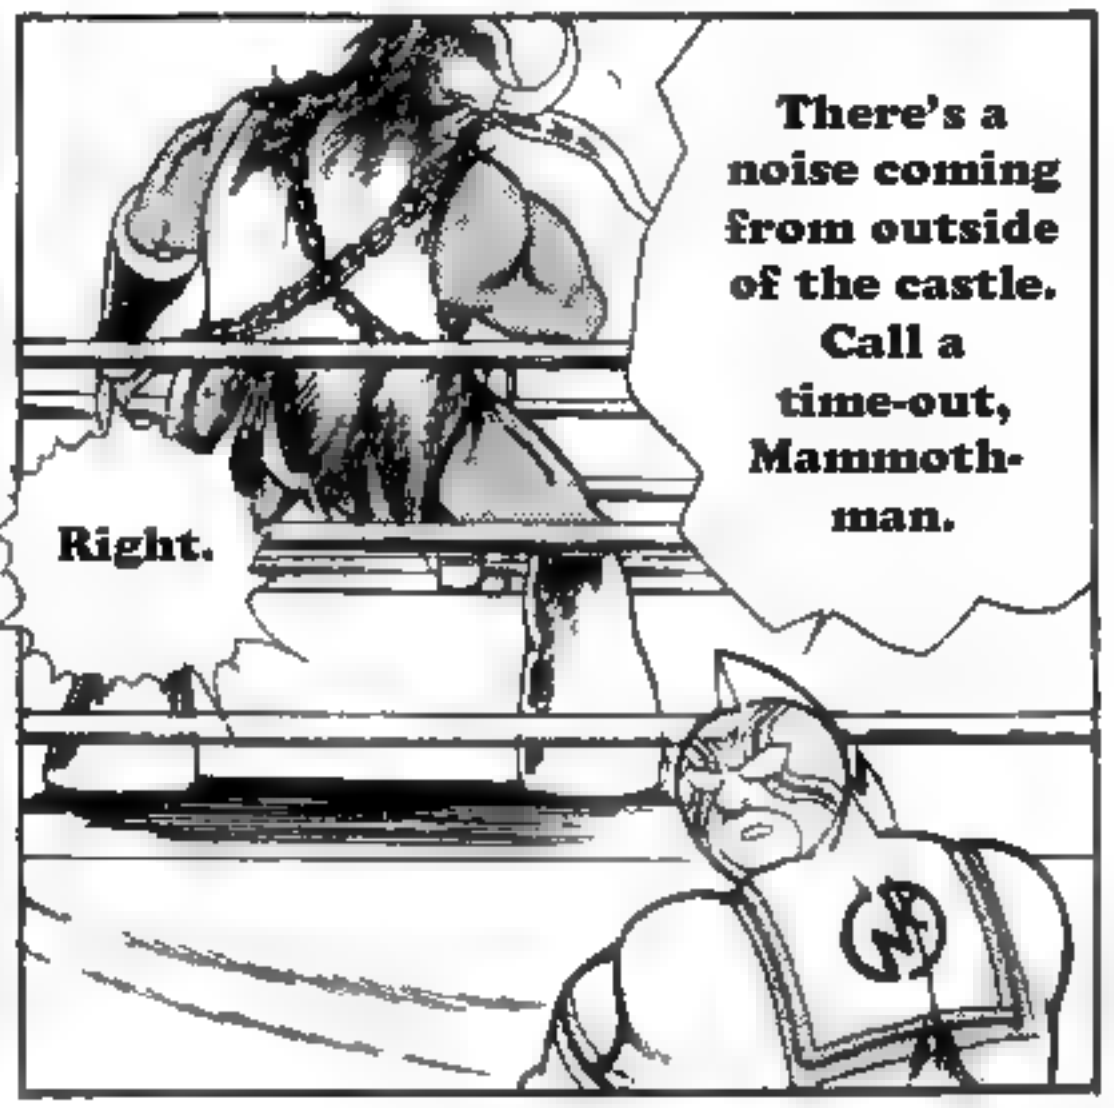
We're coming to the rescue of a friend in danger for our students, even if it costs us our lives.

I don't care whether you send the General or the Second-in-Command, send whoever you want!

The abnormally strong Mammothman has won against three straight members of Team Big Body, making it dangerous for the remaining two!



Ugh... If he's saying that...



They were probably on their way to help that crisis-ridden Kinnikuman and got stopped by the Chojin Police Corp...

What!?

Amazing! Robin Mask and Terryman of the Justice Chojin are fighting a huge crowd of Chojin outside of the castle!

Yah!

Paooo!

Mammothman, there's only one way we should respond to this!

Right! I know exactly what you mean!

Death-Body Shot!

Halt!

Super Phoenix has suddenly hit the headless Golemman corpse through the castle wall!

This is a godsend, Terryman. Now we can finally go to Kinniku-man's aid!

That's...

What are you doing!? Team Kinnikuman was finally starting to go down, but now they'll be even stronger with Robin Mask and Terryman!

We believe that the greater our enemy is, the greater it will be to defeat them.

KUMAMOTO CASTLE

Ha-hahahaha, great work, King the 100 Ton! If you can just defeat Meat, it will be a come-from-behind victory for Team Mariposa!

Ora Ora, what's the matter?

Here again at Kumamoto Castle, Team Mariposa's Second-in-Command, King the 100 Ton, is, as you can say, laying the smack-down on Meat, who's unable to fight back!

Stop this!

Stop!

King the 100 Ton has added his remaining weights onto his body, going back to his original form!

You impudent fool!

Jet Roller See-Saw!

If Meat hits the ceiling at that speed, he'll die instantly!

Aah!

Meat, who had taken King the 100 Ton's attack and was on the verge of crashing into the ceiling...

...has just been caught by Terryman and Robin Mask!

The Secret Member List の巻

How can this be!? Those two shouldn't have been able to leave Texas and England because they were surrounded by Chojin Police Corp.!

.....

Aah!

Even though we had to face great difficulties, we broke through them!

Have you forgotten the strength of the bonds of friendship among the Justice Chojin? In this case, our friendship saw us through!

Terry

...

Robin

...

You did a great thing by beating Mixer Taitei.

Well Meat, you've been relieved, so just rest.

Pl... Please... s... save Prince.

.....

I thought that I'd be able to defeat all five member of Mariposa's team by myself, but without my full power... I'm ashamed of myself for having to send in Meat to take care of this...

With your new positions of Chief of Staff and Staff Officer, I didn't want to request your help, even though I didn't say it out loud.

Kinniku-man!

For some reason, we still ended up coming to Kumamoto.

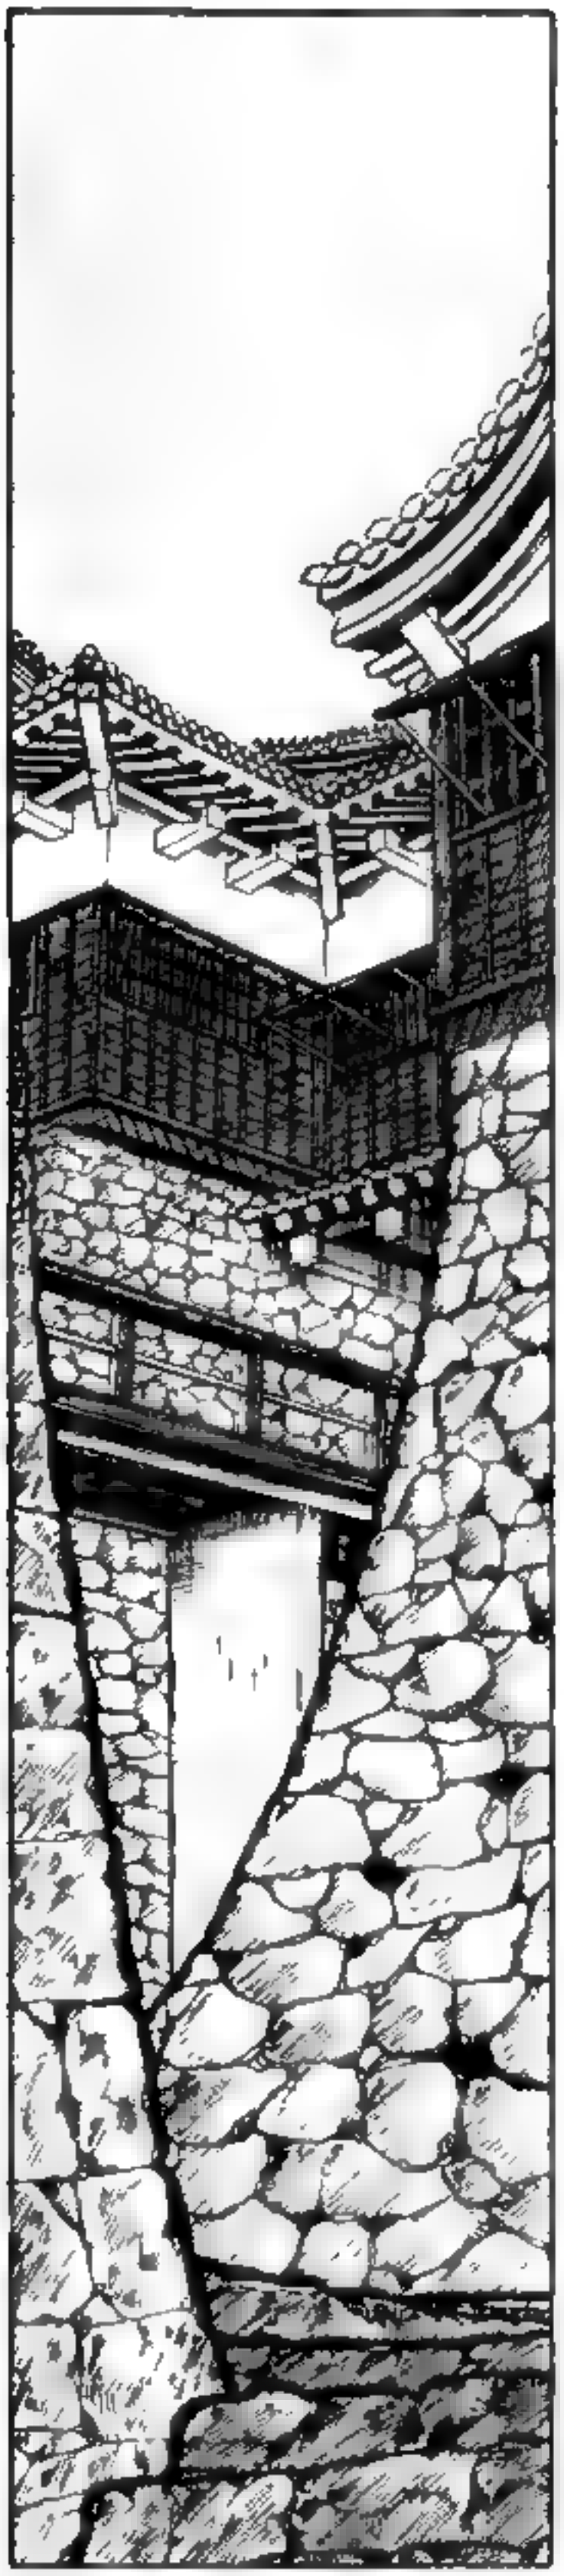
You don't have to worry about asking us for help, Kinnikuman.

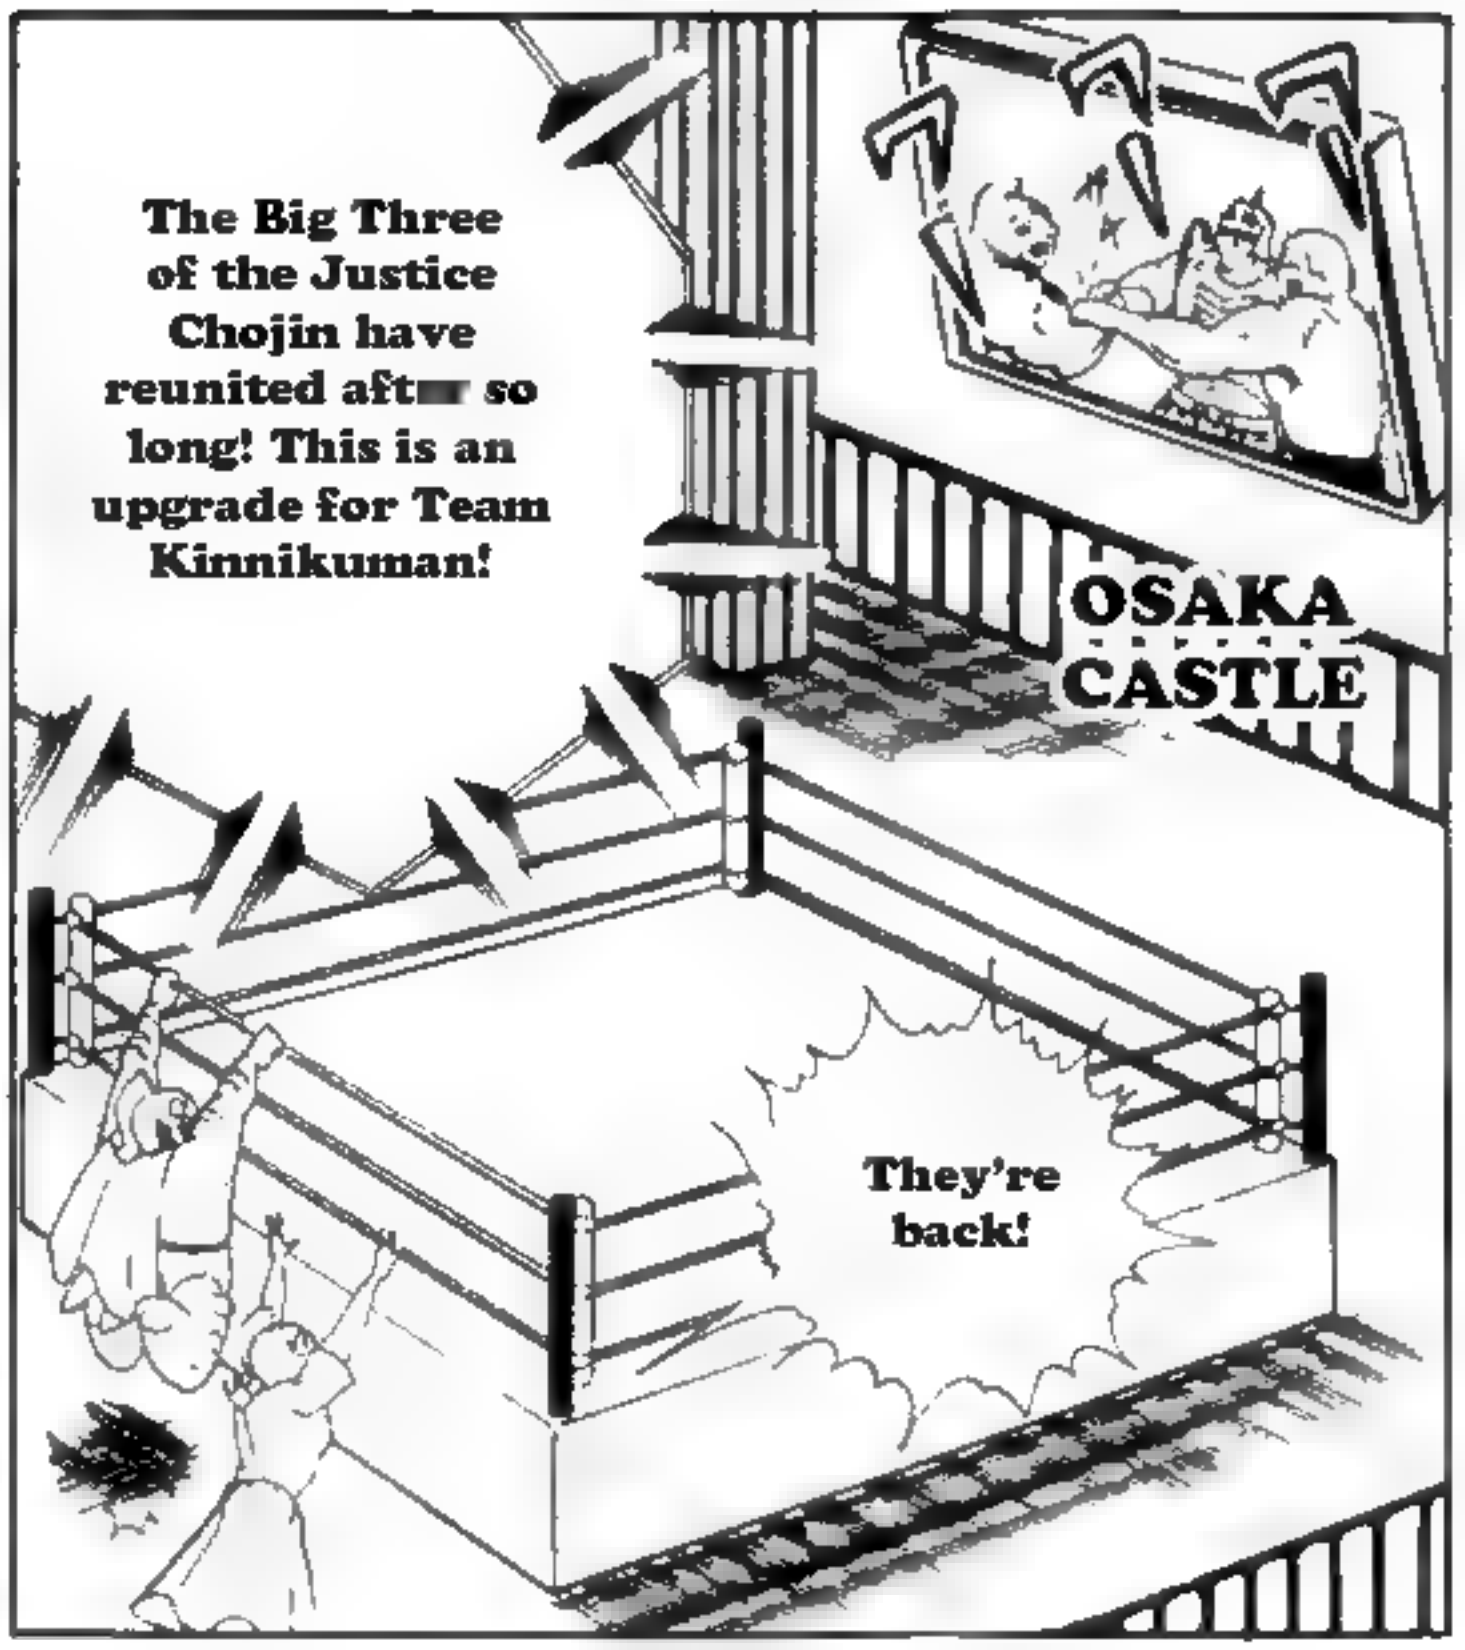
If I had asked for your help, you'd have gotten hurt in the ring again.

So then...

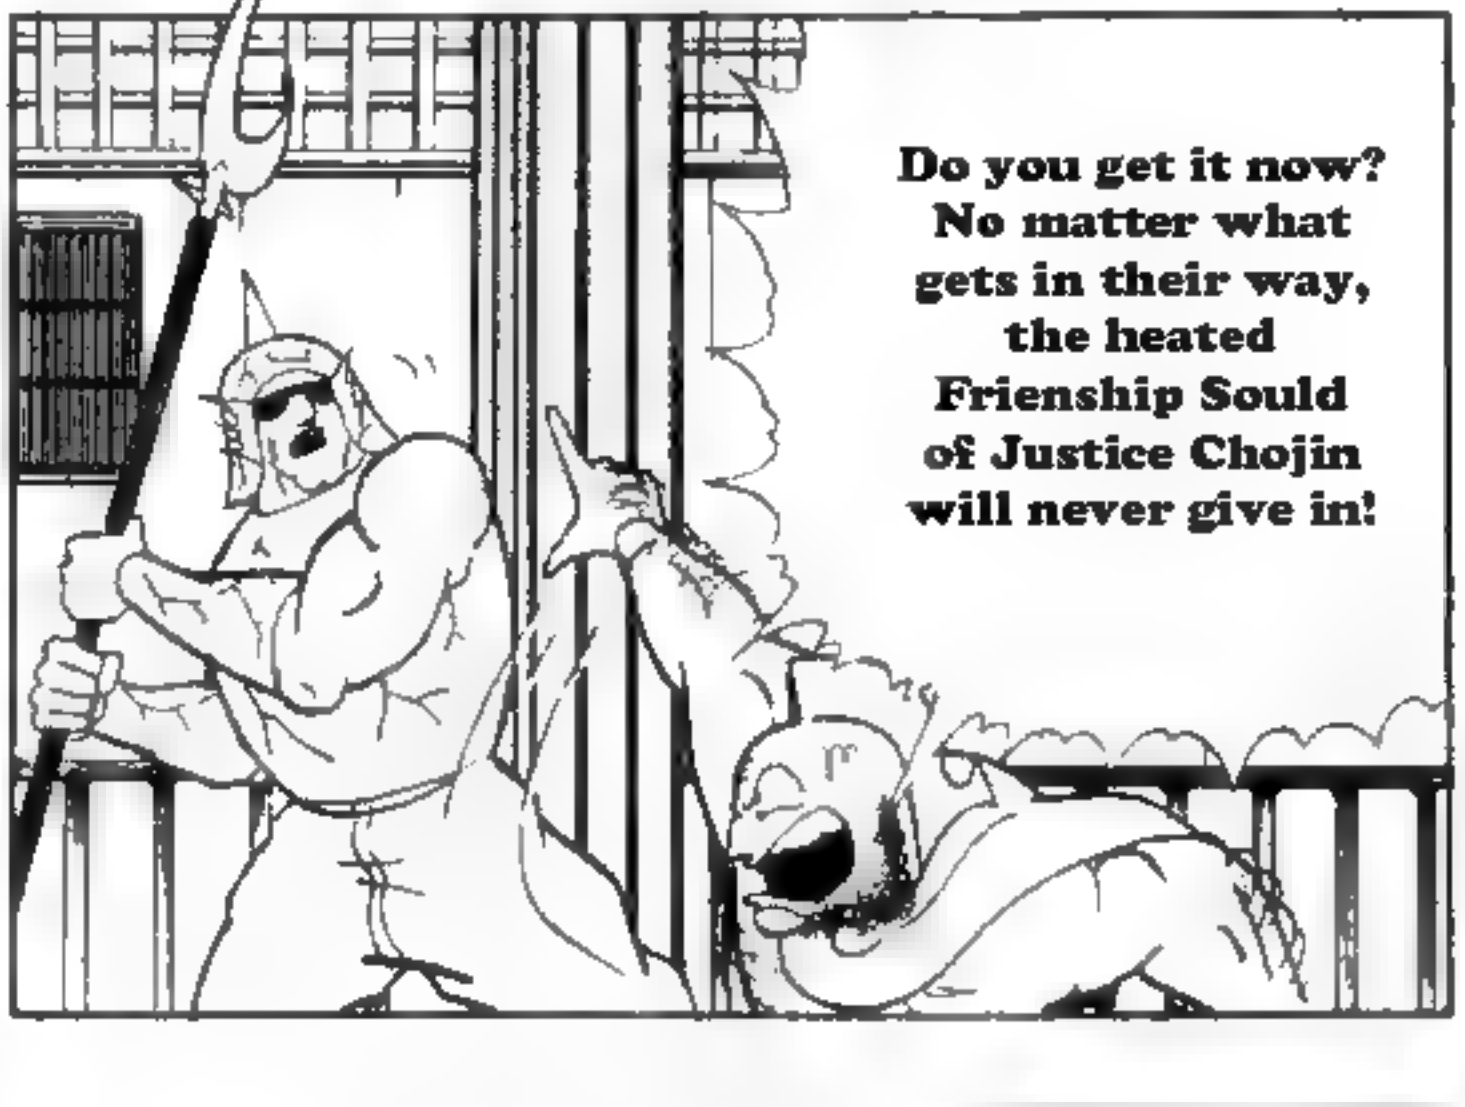
Leave the rest to us!

Sorry to keep you waiting, Kinnikuman!





The Big Three of the Justice Chojin have reunited aft so long! This is an upgrade for Team Kinnikuman!
OSAKA CASTLE
They're back!



Do you get it now? No matter what gets in their way, the heated Frienship Sould of Justice Chojin will never give in!

Ugh.

No, 100 Ton. It hasn't been decided that they'll be interrupting.

Terryman, Robin Mask, if we go by the rules of the Scramble for the Kinniku Throne Survival Match, then you two are no qualified to participate in this match!

Will Robin Mask enter the ring in place of Meat, or will it be Terryman?

Ugh, I thought that Team Kinnikuman would finally be wiped out after defeating Meat, but an annoying interruption just happened.

TEAM KINNIKUMAN

SUGURU KINNIKU
ALEXANDRIA MEAT

In this Survival Match, the team leaders are are participating in this match all had to fill out a list of members in the order that they'd be competing. That means that players who are not listed cannot compete!

What!?

The ones who shouldn't be making a peep about it are you...

Referee, let me brrow that member list, and I don't want to hear a peep from you about it.

100t

This is...

What's wrong? 100 Ton...

Ugh...

What!?

Terryman and Robin Mask's names weren't there when he turned in the list, but now they are!

TEAM KINNIKUMAN

ADVANCE GUARD-SUGURU KINNIKU
SECOND GUARD-ALEXANDRIA MEAT
ECOND-IN-COMMAND-TERRYMAN
GENERAL-ROBIN MASK

What's the meaning of this, Kinnikuman?

Kinnikuman, what's going on?

When 100 Ton opened the scroll, the heat from the lights activated it and the words appeared.

When I filled out my member list, I wrote the names of Terryman and Robin Mask in invisible ink that responds to heat, incase I ran into trouble.

Those two are what I call my "invisible ink members".

With that, this match has become even more confusing. With the addition of Terryman and Robin Mask, both Team Mariposa and Team Kinnikuman have two members remaining!

I get it. So with that settled, we can enter the ring as members of Team Kinnikuman now.

Terry!

Robin!

As you wish, Lord Mariposa.

Even if it's come down to this, both Terryman and Robin Mask are nothing! Show them the true terror of your Evil Power that almost killed that brat!

Entering the ring for Team Kinnikuman is Terryman!

The showdown of second-in-commands has begun!

Yes, it is.

Prince, is it true...? Are they really on Team Kinnikuman..? Have Robin and Terry come to save us?

Every-thing's alright, Meat.

Hiyah!

ズ"ン

But 100 Ton withstands it easily!

Terryman starts with a Drop Kick!

Alright! In that case...

Just what I'd expect from someone called "100 Ton". You're too heavy for my mere 95 kilos.

Guwah! What a hard body...!

I'll destroy him with a punch!

That isn't iron, copper, or even lead. It's a metal I've never seen before.

Ow!

Here, let me take a look at those for you.

This is cruel! King the 100 Ton has jumped on Terryman's injured hands with all of his weight!

Terryman!

Terryman's kick has hit 100 Ton's hand!

Guohohoho, what do you think? I'm quite happy with it, myself.

OWW WWW!

Terryman, use your legs!

Guh!

Guwah!

20 tons should be enough to deal with you.

Geh! You've taken off your armor!

I'm still going even though I've taken your strong attacks, but the fact that you're so hurt from one kick is proof that you rely too much on your armor and don't bother to train yourself!

Guohoho, that's enough talk from you.

He vanished!

This time Terryman is aiming a Jumping Knee Pat at King the 100 Ton's face!

Shut up!

I see. By reducing his weight to 20 tons, his movements have become quicker...

He managed to get all the way over there before I knew it!

.....!?

Terryman, hold on a minute. Let me show you something amusing.

Ooh!

What? The ring has started shaking!

What's this?

That's...

It looks like something is rising from a crack in the canvas!

Somehow a giant see-saw has come out of the ring!

A see-saw! A giant see-saw!

Let's go to 40t with 40 tons!

Ugh!

Terryman, my fight with you has become a see-saw deathmatch!

note: Normally he's using "tons" referring to the unit of mass, but in this case he's using "40t" to specify it as a unit of weight.

Terryman has been thrown up by the side of the see-saw he was on!

How clever! He quickly grabbed onto the rope to prevent hitting the ceiling!

AAH!

Guh!

ｶﾞｯ

Let's try 80 tons this time.

An average Chojin would have been sent to hell at 40t, but you're not exactly average, Terryman.

Jet Roller See-Saw 80t!

What!?

Hiyah!

Geh!

Terryman is holding on by grabbing the rope again!

Uwa!

Terry!

With the see-saw's reaction to King the 100 Ton's 80t weights, Terryman's body has crashed into the lights on the ceiling!

Terryman!

Go-hohoho, everyone in this arena finally seems to understand the terror of the See-Saw Deathmatch!

A See-Saw Deathmatch... This is truly a match that can take advantage of King the 100 Ton's large build...

What happened to Terry!?

Don't worry, I don't intend for him to die until he is sent flying by my maximum weight of 100t!

I used 80t power on purpose, so that Terryman will be already be half-dead when that happens.

What!?

So that you could test it out before doing it with your 100t power...

K... King the 100 Ton, y... you did that on purpose...

Go-hohoho, you have guts to challenge me on my own See-Saw Death-match!

So, before that happens, I'll show you pain!

Alright, another serving of 80t!

I may have a chance if I can land on the see-saw before King the 100 Ton's huge body can!

This is what I've been waiting for!

Geh!

Somehow, Terryman was faster landing on the see-saw than King the 100 Ton!

Jet Roller See-Saw 80t!

Law-Breaking Reverse See-Saw!

King the 100 Ton's large body has been swept underfoot by the see-saw!

How can this be? A 95 kilo man has just repelled 80t of weight!

With speed! Terryman's speed beats out King the 100 Ton's power!

Guwah!

You... I can't forgive you anymore!

I wouldn't have been able to do that if you had just killed me earlier!

Ooh!

No, Terry! Don't let 100 Ton get back on the see-saw!

Terryman has 100 Ton in a Key Lock!

ズズズ…!

I'll never let go of you!

You seem to think that I can only fight on the see-saw, but that's just your own ignorance.

ドドド

Aah!

Geh! Both of 100 Ton's arms and legs have been pulled inside of the armor!

ゴゴゴ

100 Ton's armor is taking a round shape!

Brace yourself, Terryman!

ゴゴゴ

Go-hohoho, you're pretty nimble, but you won't escape this time.

That's quite the destructive power if he's able to smash the iron ring post!

The 100 Ton orb is rushing at Terryman again!

What!?

Geh! The orb is splitting!

Terry, get rid of that ball!

Right!

But Terryman has caught it!

Guo!

Due to your orb seperating, which you somehow managed to do, each orb's weight is halved!

You fool! You blew it for yourself by picking that up!

Why's it so heavy!?

Somehow the top orb managed to rejoin itself to the orb Terryman was holding, doubling it's weight!

Ugh!

The giant orb became a barbell now!

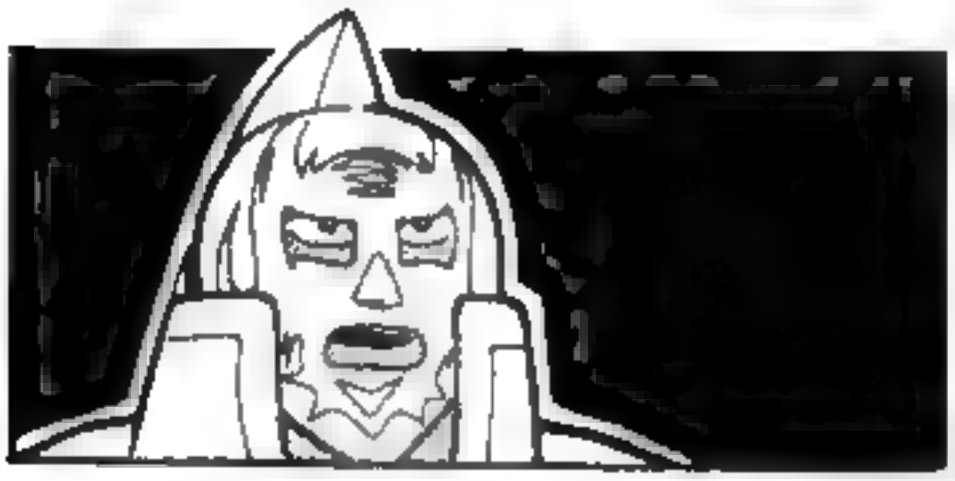
Guh!

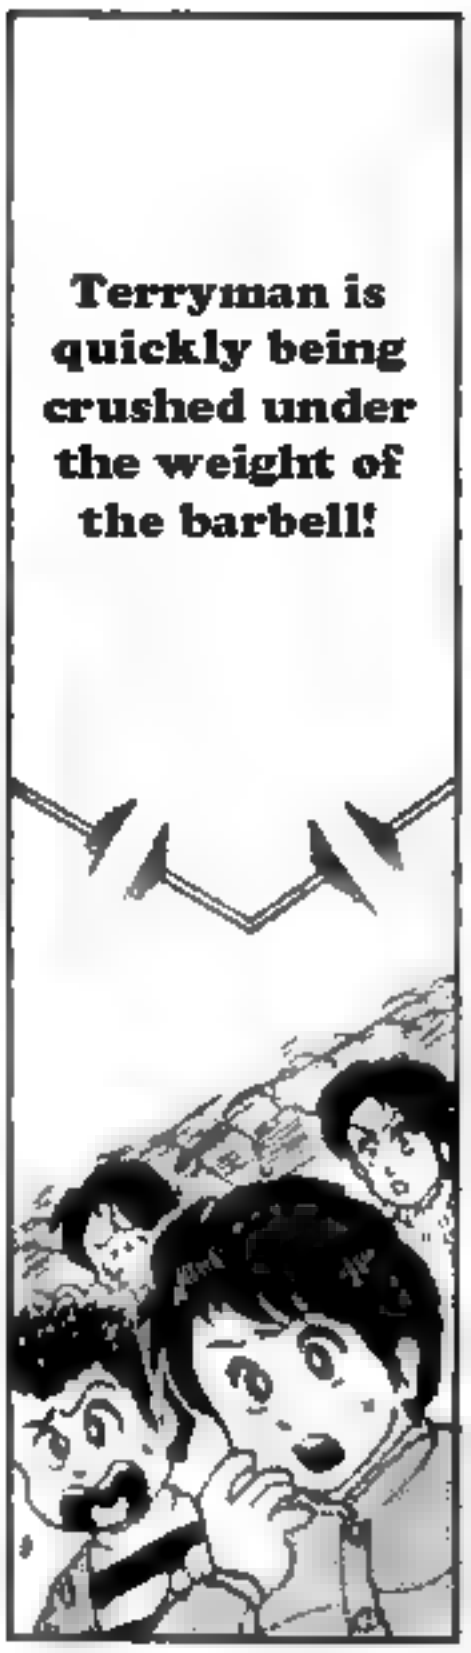
Go-hohoho, now the transforming show can begin!

Perhaps 100 Ton's body is a special metal that can turn into any three dimentional shape!

If this Chojin is made of metal, how is he able to change forms like this?

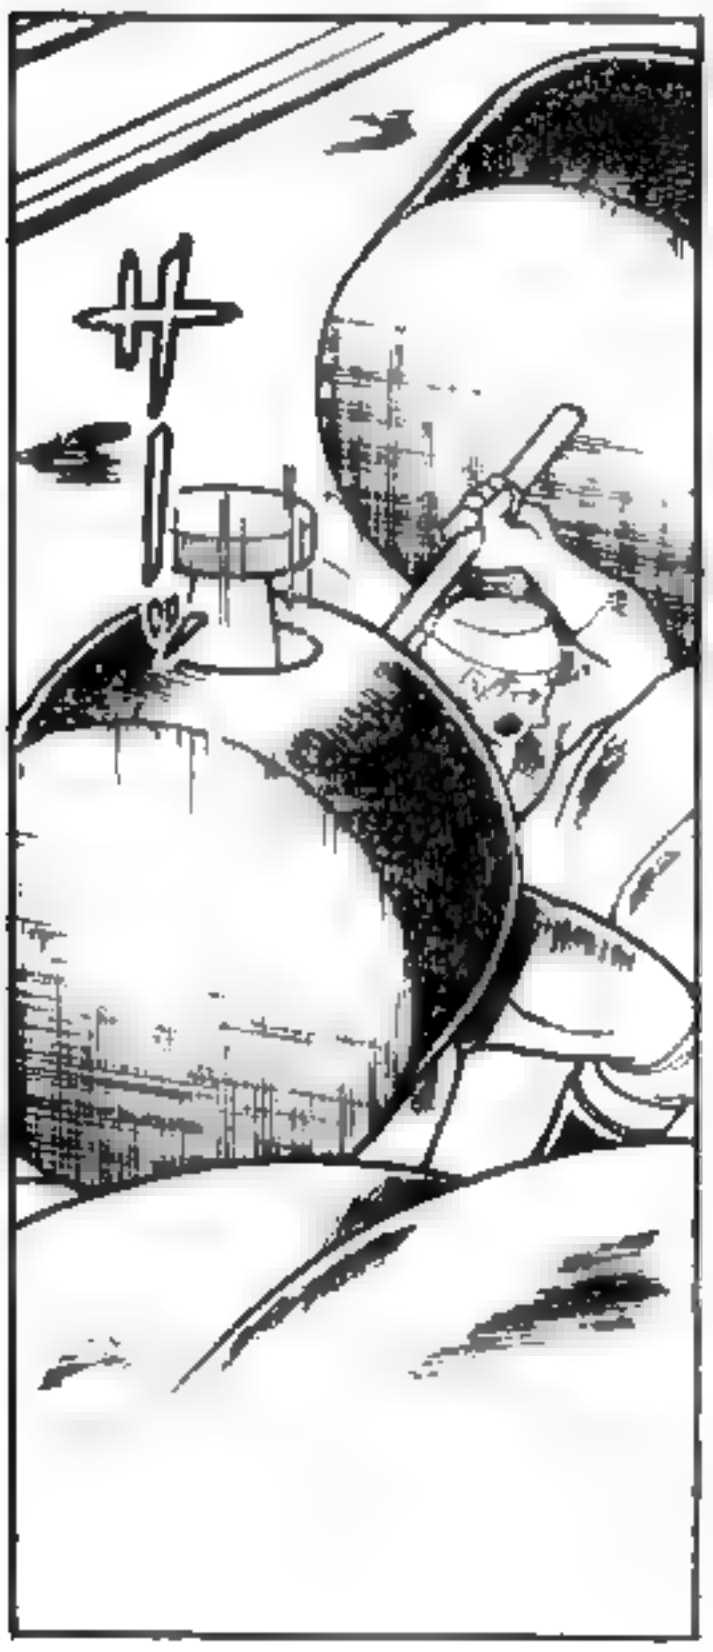
ヴヴヴ
No...
This is my limit...

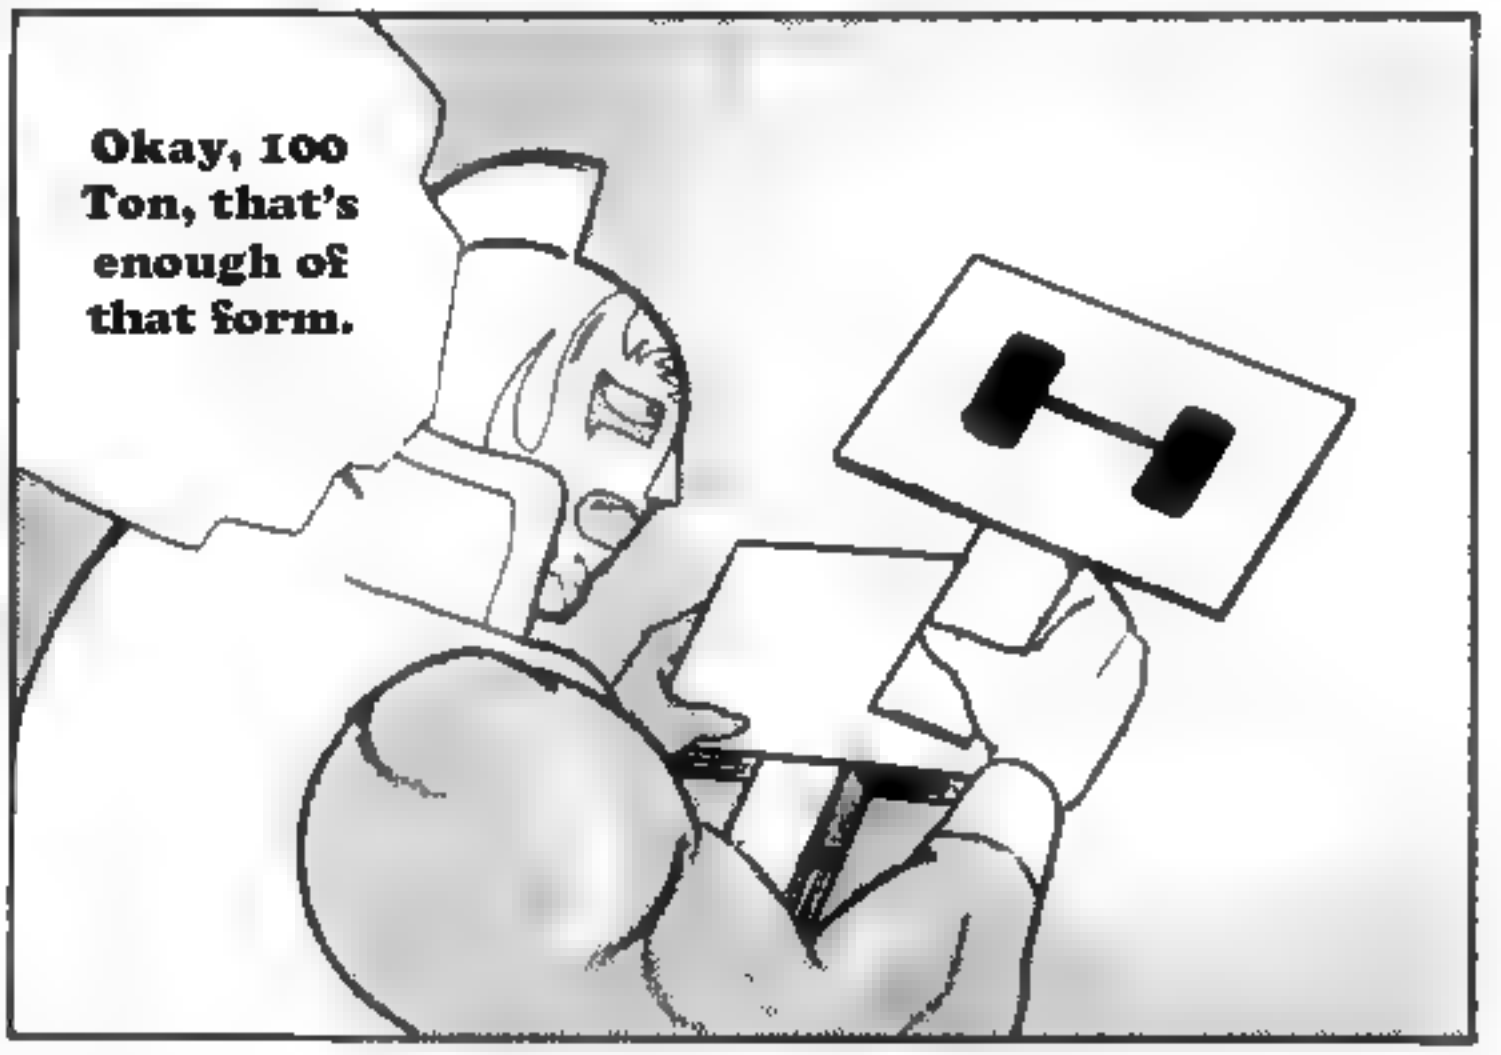




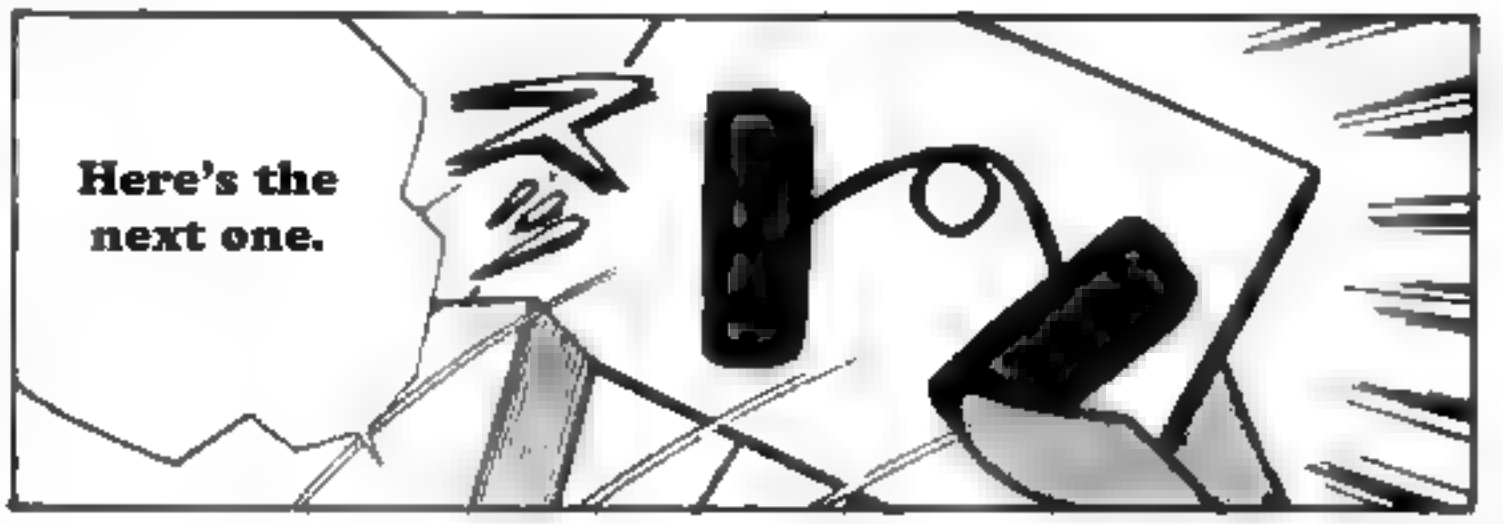
Terryman is quickly being crushed under the weight of the barbell!

Ugh!





Okay, 100 Ton, that's enough of that form.



Here's the next one.

Go-hohoho, you should be excited, Terryman! Here comes another new form!

Aah!

Now the barbell is wraping around Terryman's neck!

Gah!

Terry...

I'm happy that I was able to get back into the ring. The sound of the mat, the smell of blood, the cheers of the people... I can't get this complete feeling from standing in front of a pedestal as a school teacher!

Terry, hold on! I'll help you get that off!

What!?

Don't interfere!

Please, just sit there quietly and watch me this time...

Hey, Chojin Chief-of-Staff Robin, don't you have any clever way he can break out of this? At this rate, Terry will be killed!

There must be someone manipulating his tranformations or something!

Robin Mask, don't you always say "there's no such thing as a perfect technique in this world"!?

I don't have any ideas in regards to 100 Ton's transformations, either...

Someone is manipulating 100 Ton!

So then there must be someone controlling King the 100 Ton's body around here!

The transforming must be sent to him by some kind of signal from the outside!

That's it, Kinnikuman!

Although 100 Ton's body can transform like that, it isn't alive, it's just metal!

It must be Mariposa!

There's only one person I can think of...

Those flashcards are giving directions to King the 100 Ton's body!

You're fine with that one, 100 Ton. You should be able to take his head off!

That's it!

Assisting in a man's 1-on-1 match is unforgivable!

You...

I see! 100 Ton's transforming body changes form based on what's drawn on the flashcard!

Lord Mariposa, what's wrong? Give me my next direction!

100 Ton, return to your original form!

What's going on? 100 Ton's body, which was a barbell a moment ago, is returning to it's original form!

Aah!

Now!

I won't let go, even if I die!

Please Lord Mariposa, give me my next trans-formation...

DON'T WORRY, 100 TON.

Then I'll have to surrender to Terryman...

UNDER ME...?

I'VE PREPARED AN EXTRA FLASHCARD UNDER YOU, IN CASE THIS HAPPENED.

Terryman, I've defeated you Texas Clover Hold!

I'm tearing off the cavas...

Go-ho hoho!

He was prepared!

There's a transformation flashcard over there!

100 Ton's body has become covered in spikes, stabbing into the Texas Clover Hold!

Guuu!

Aaaah!

Now's my chance!

AAH!

U-Turn See-Saw!

Terryman has landed back on the see-saw after a body blow from 100 Ton!

If I want this lightweight Chojin to die quickly, I have no choice! I'll have to use 100t: my true power!

Heh heh heh... It's been many years since I've seen him completely armored... Now we'll be seeing a real bloodbath.

King the 100 Ton has added 20t to his already 80t body!

Full Release: 100t Power!

Hey!
That's the V-sign of Blood Death. It means that he'll be killing Terryman with two attacks from his Jet Roller See-Saw.
What's that V for!?
Will break all of the bones in Terryman's whole body.
The first Jet Roller See-Saw...

...will make those broken bones cut through Terryman's soft internal organs.

Then the final attack...

It's an declaration of a perfect murder!

Run away, Terry!

King the 100 Ton takes the stance for the first Jet Roller See-Saw attack!

Jet Roller See-Saw 100t!

The Roller See-Saw 80t had the power to send him into the lights...

Terryman has taken 100 Ton's first attack, sending him into the lights above!

Guwah!

The Roller See-Saw 100t has the power to send him through the lights!

That's the sound of Terryman's bones breaking!

Go-hohoho! Do you see the destructive power of my true form?

You're saying that you can still defeat me? If you have time to come up with unbelievable stories like that, then hurry up and come down here so you can take my second attack!

Yes, although my whole body is shaking... 100 Ton, I've thought of a way to defeat you...

This power is even greater than I had imagined... Every bone in my body is shattered...

Are you still alive, Terryman?

Every Chojin body is supported by a frame. If you break it apart, you can stop them from being able to move...

Terryman is falling toward hell!

Oh no! If he takes another 100t Roller See-Saw, the bones in his body will pierce his organs and kill him instantly!

Go-hohoho, hurry down here, Terryman! I'll send you to the next world!

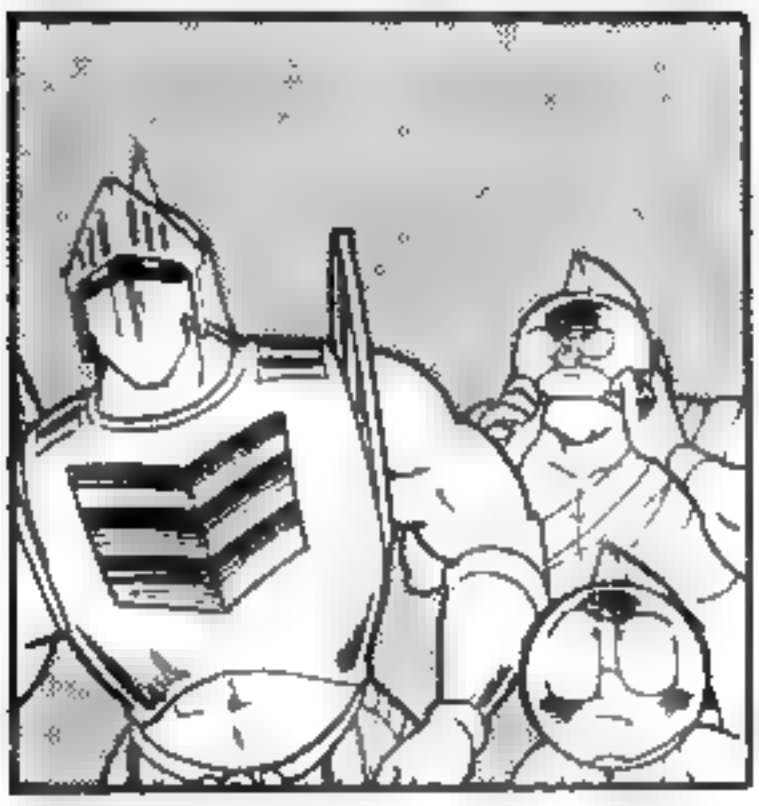
...similarly, metal is the same. It's formed by the adhesion of many tiny molecules. If that's the case, then I can destroy your body by breaking apart the arrangement of molecules!

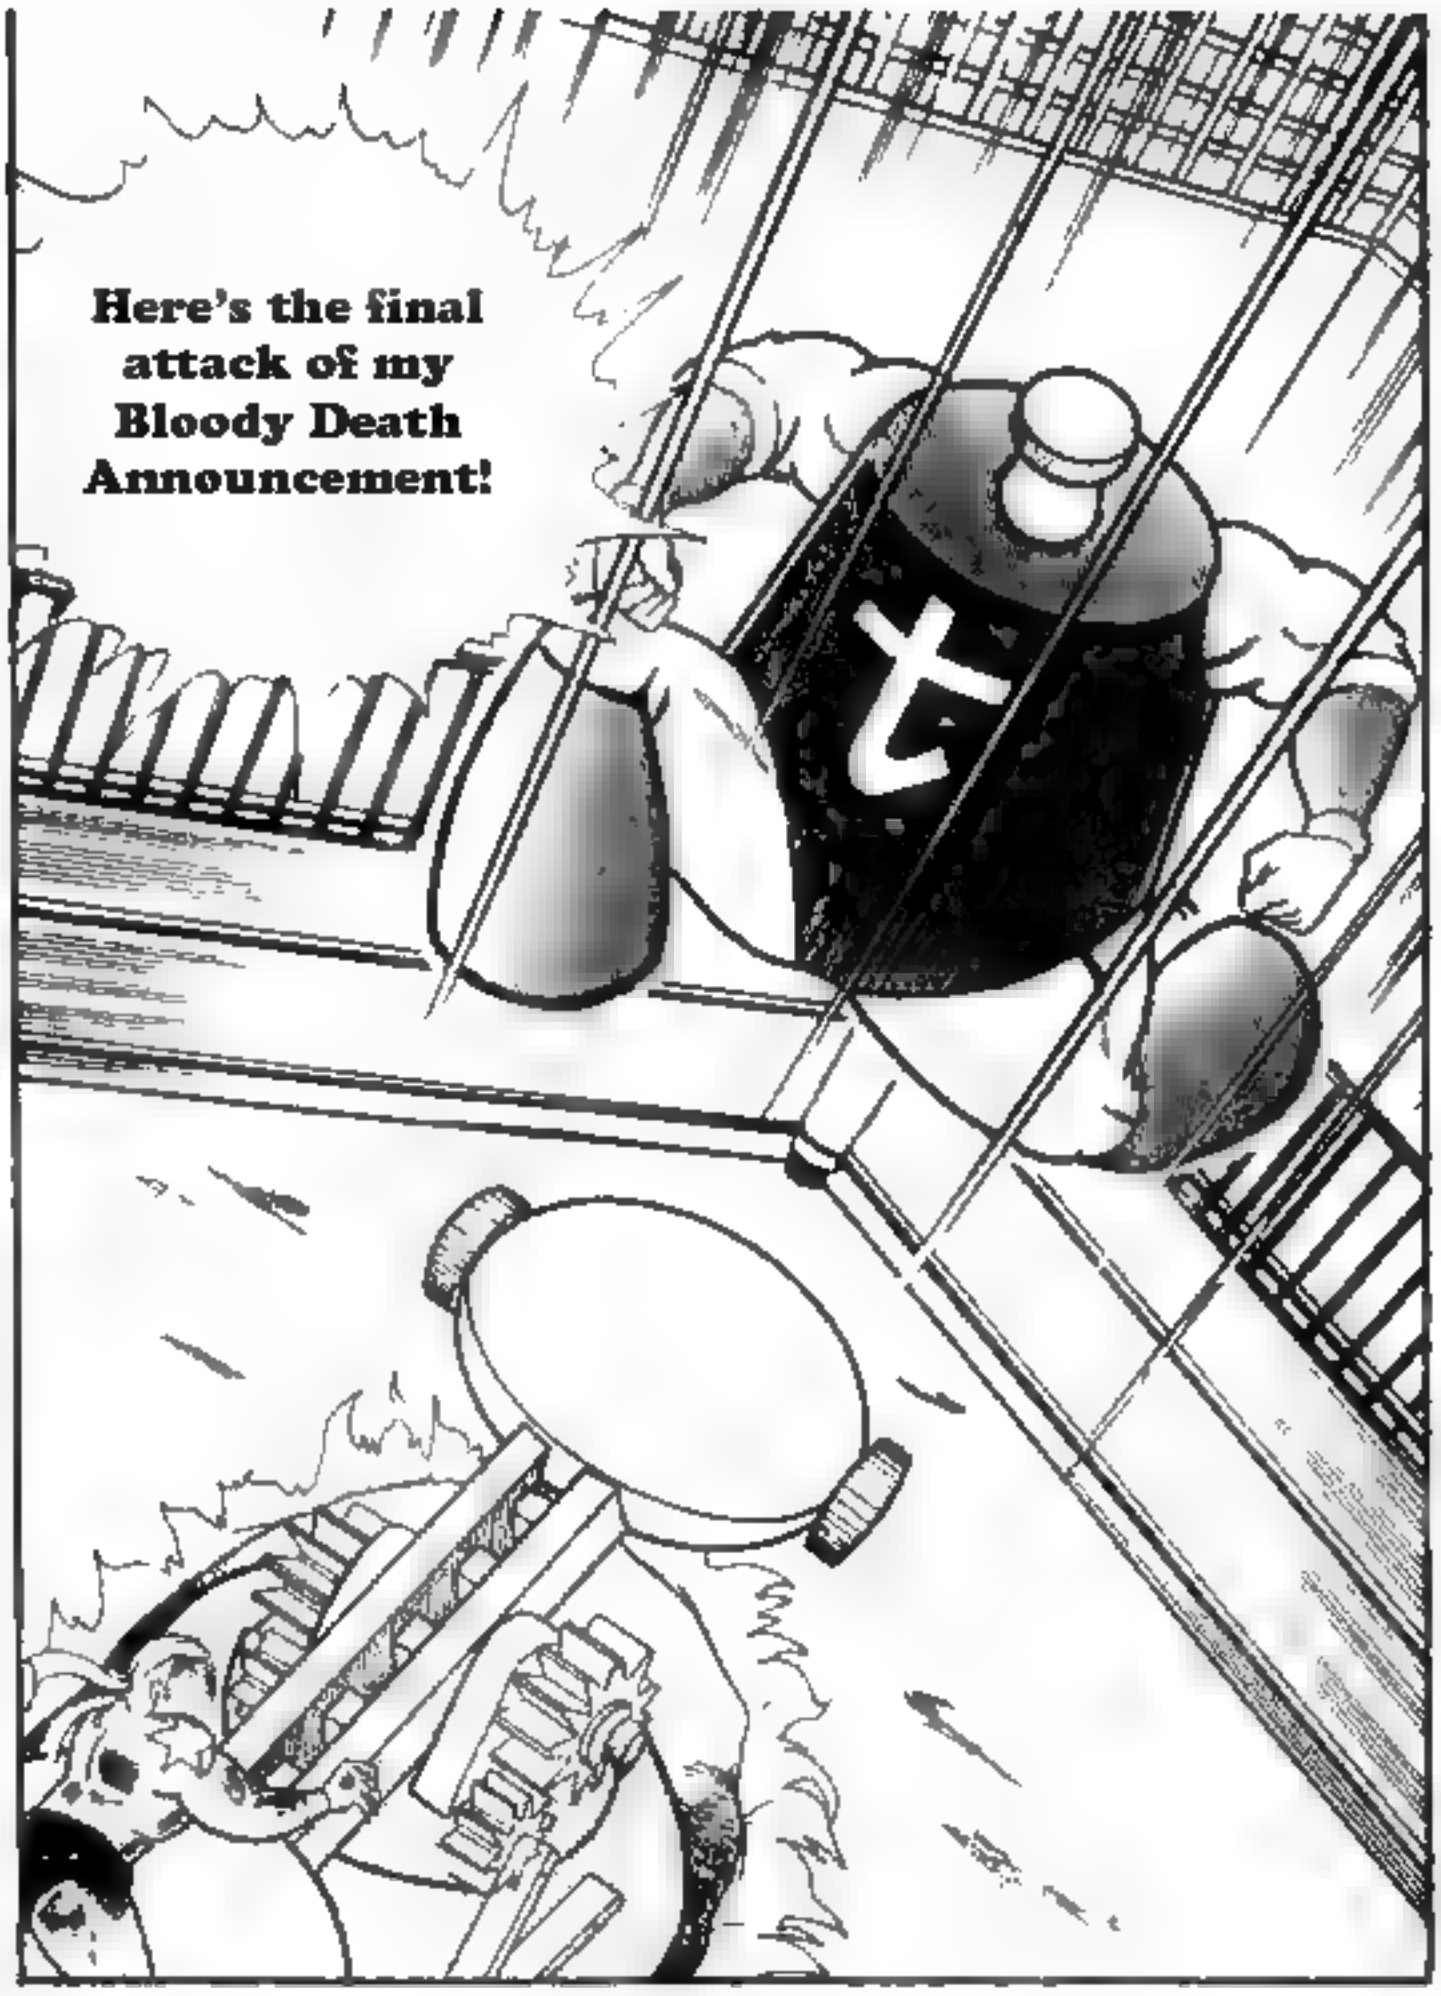
We can't disqualify ourselves to save him!

Toh!

N... no! I finally have a plan to defeat 100 Ton, but my body won't listen to me...

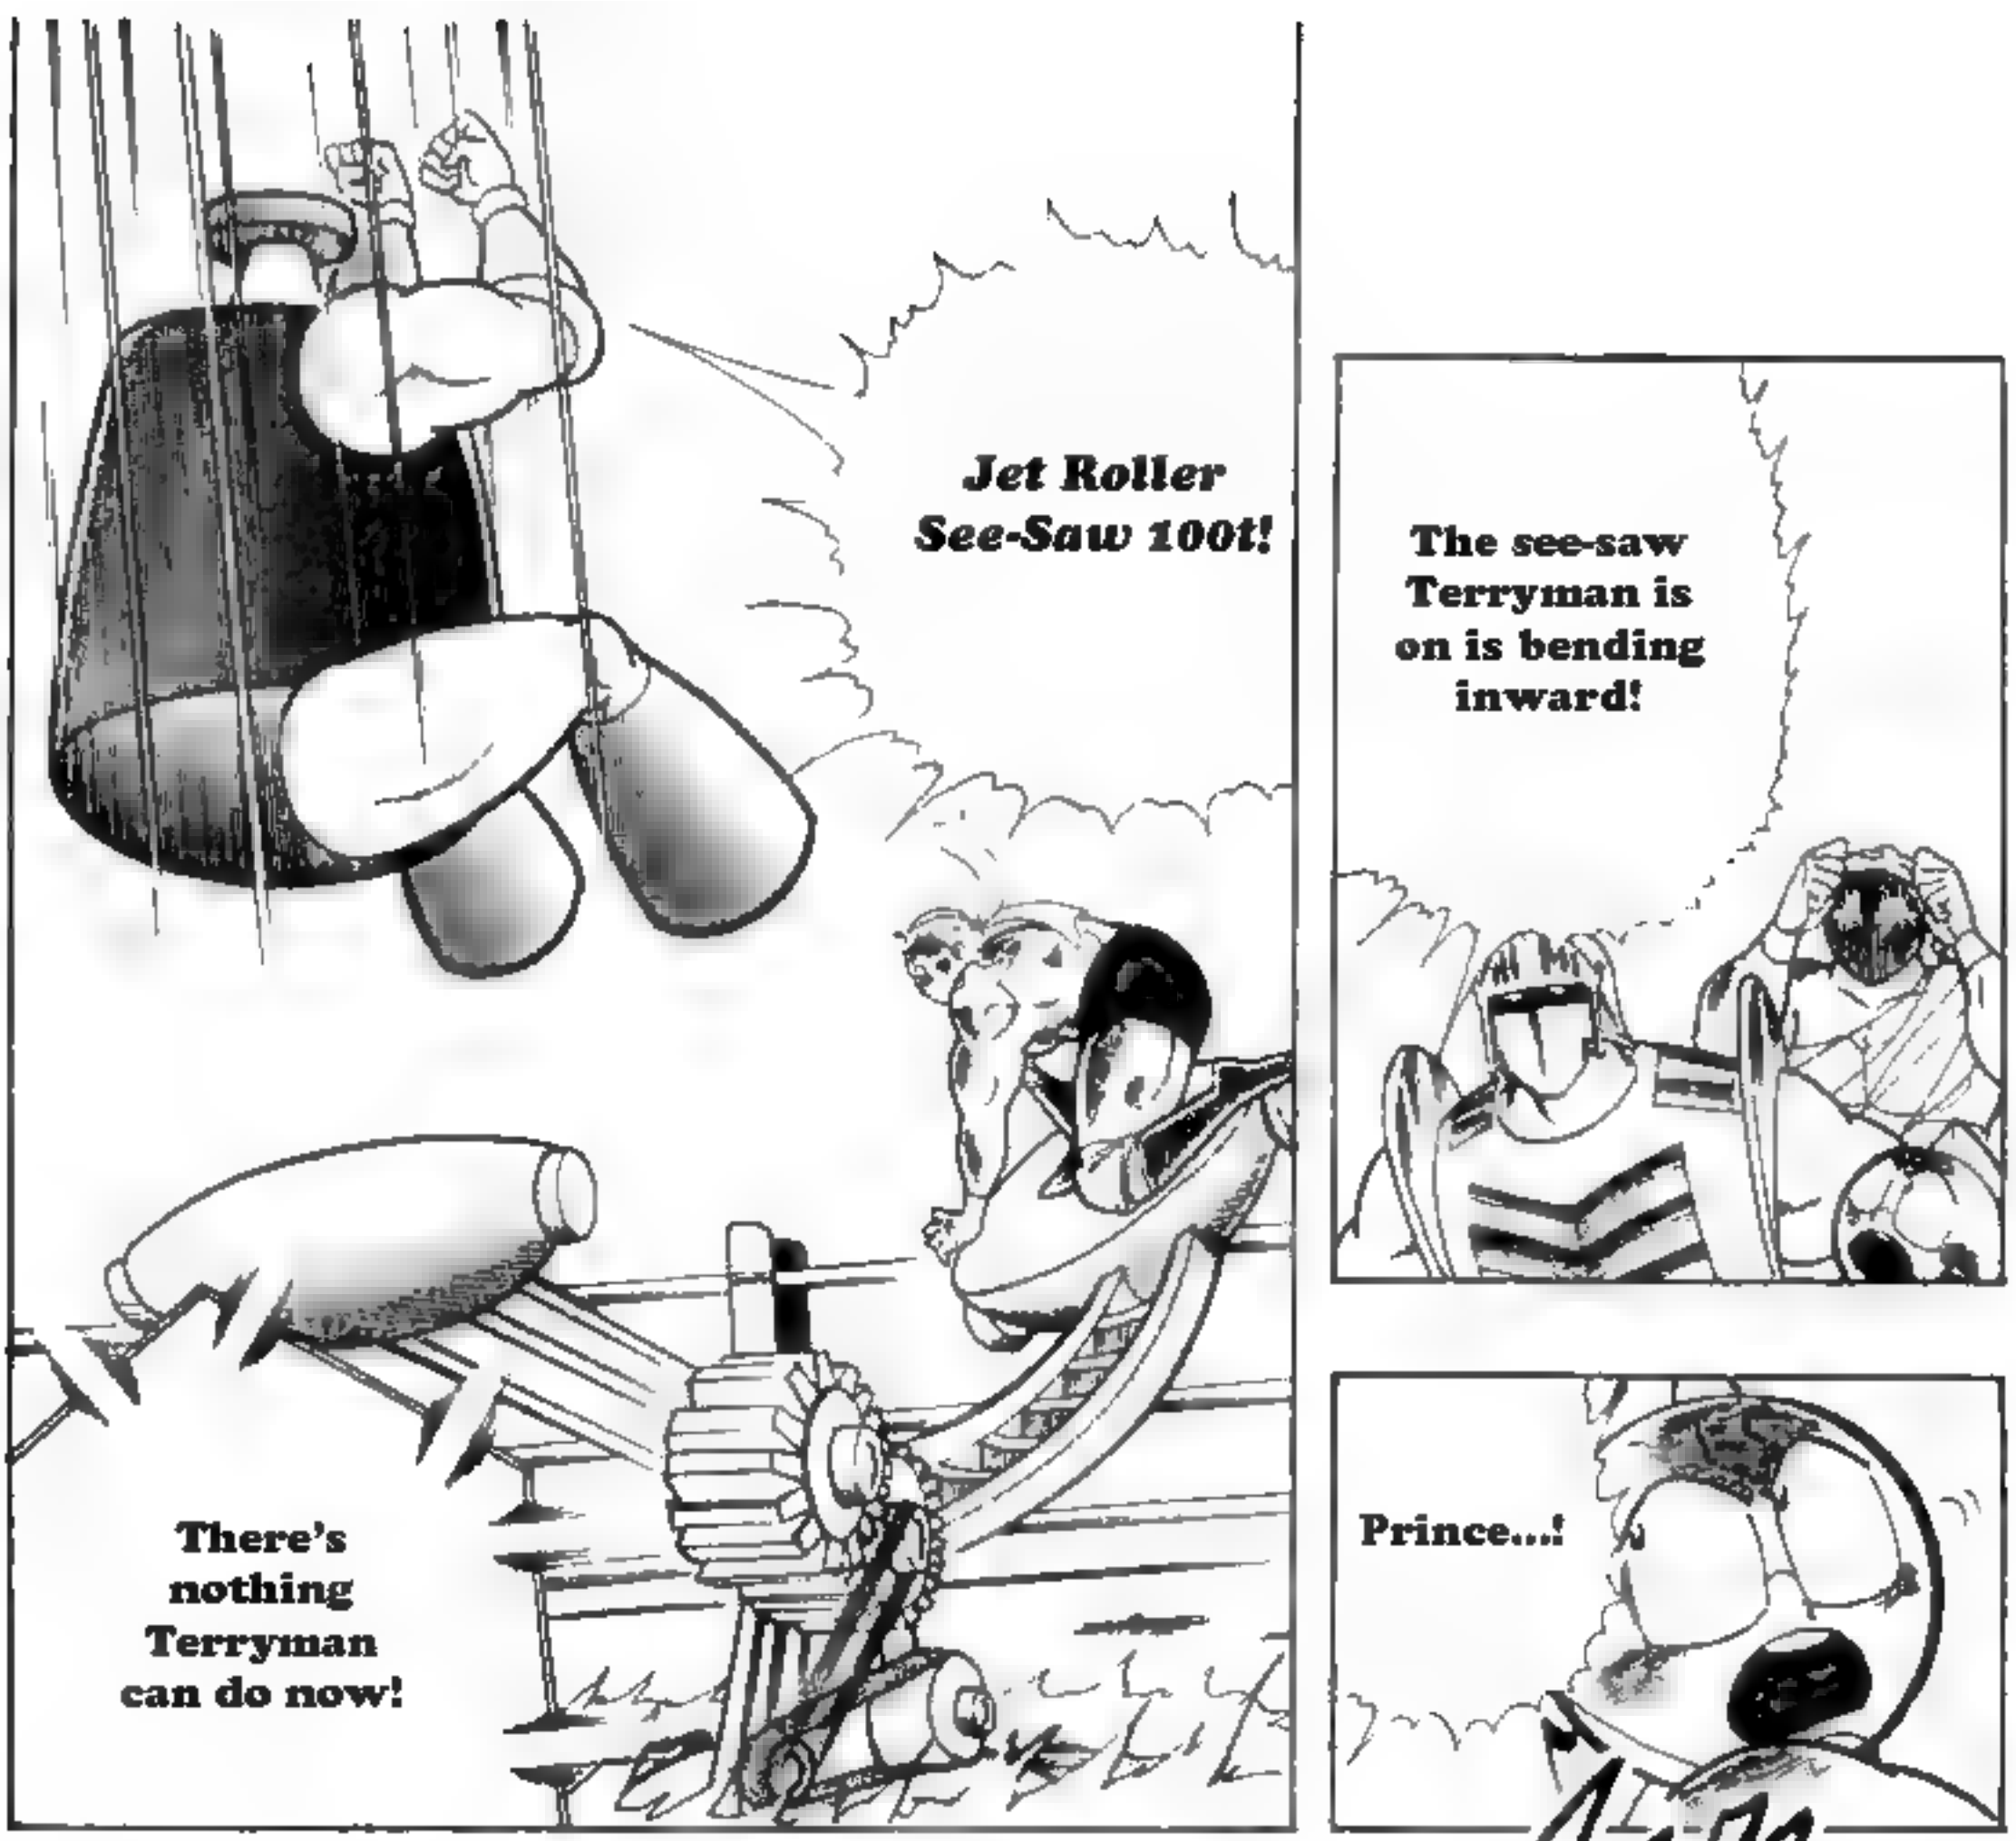
No, I won't allow Terryman to be killed due to a Kinniku Clan dispute...





Here's the final attack of my Bloody Death Announcement!

ピー



Jet Roller See-Saw 100t!
The see-saw Terryman is on is bending inward!
There's nothing Terryman can do now!
Prince...!
Geh!
Due to the bending of the see-saw, Terry-man is flying toward King the 100 Ton instead of the ceiling!

Geh!

Take this!

Jet Roller See-Saw Rebellion!

Terryman used an unthinkable reversal!

.....

Yay! He actually did it!

This time he bended a steel see-saw from a distance like it was nothing...

The first time he turned a dirty river into a clean river...

What exactly is the secret of the true face under Prince's mask?

King the 100 Ton is standing!

How!? How could the lever of this solider steel see-saw have been bent!?

Now, Kinnikuman! Throw all of the flashcards at 100 Ton!

Alright, that blow show have slightly disturbed the arrnagement of molecules in King the 100 Ton's metal body! Alright, I'll have to strike him there again!

Right!

Guwa!

Aah!

Great, now there's just Mariposa left!

The referee's countdown has started! If Terryman can't get up within the 10 count, it will be a double-KO draw!

Guh!

I'm honored to have been praised by you, Lord Mariposa.

Ugh!

You can do it, Terry!

Just a bit more, Terry!

Ten!

Terryman's good fight was futile, as the match gets ruled a draw due to injury, thanks to an unfortunate accident!

Throw in an egg and miso soup, too.

You won't be stepping into the ring again!

Mariposa rushes toward Robin Mask on the edge of the ring again!

Ugh!

However, Robin has seen through it and taken him into a Spinning Lobster Defense!

Hmph!

Robin has flung Mariposa with an overhead throw!

ガ"ガ"

Now Robin is lying in wait to skewer the falling Mariposa on his head!

Wh.. What!?

Of course!

Mariposa has avoided his skewering by doing a hand stand with his fingertip on Robin Mask's head!
お

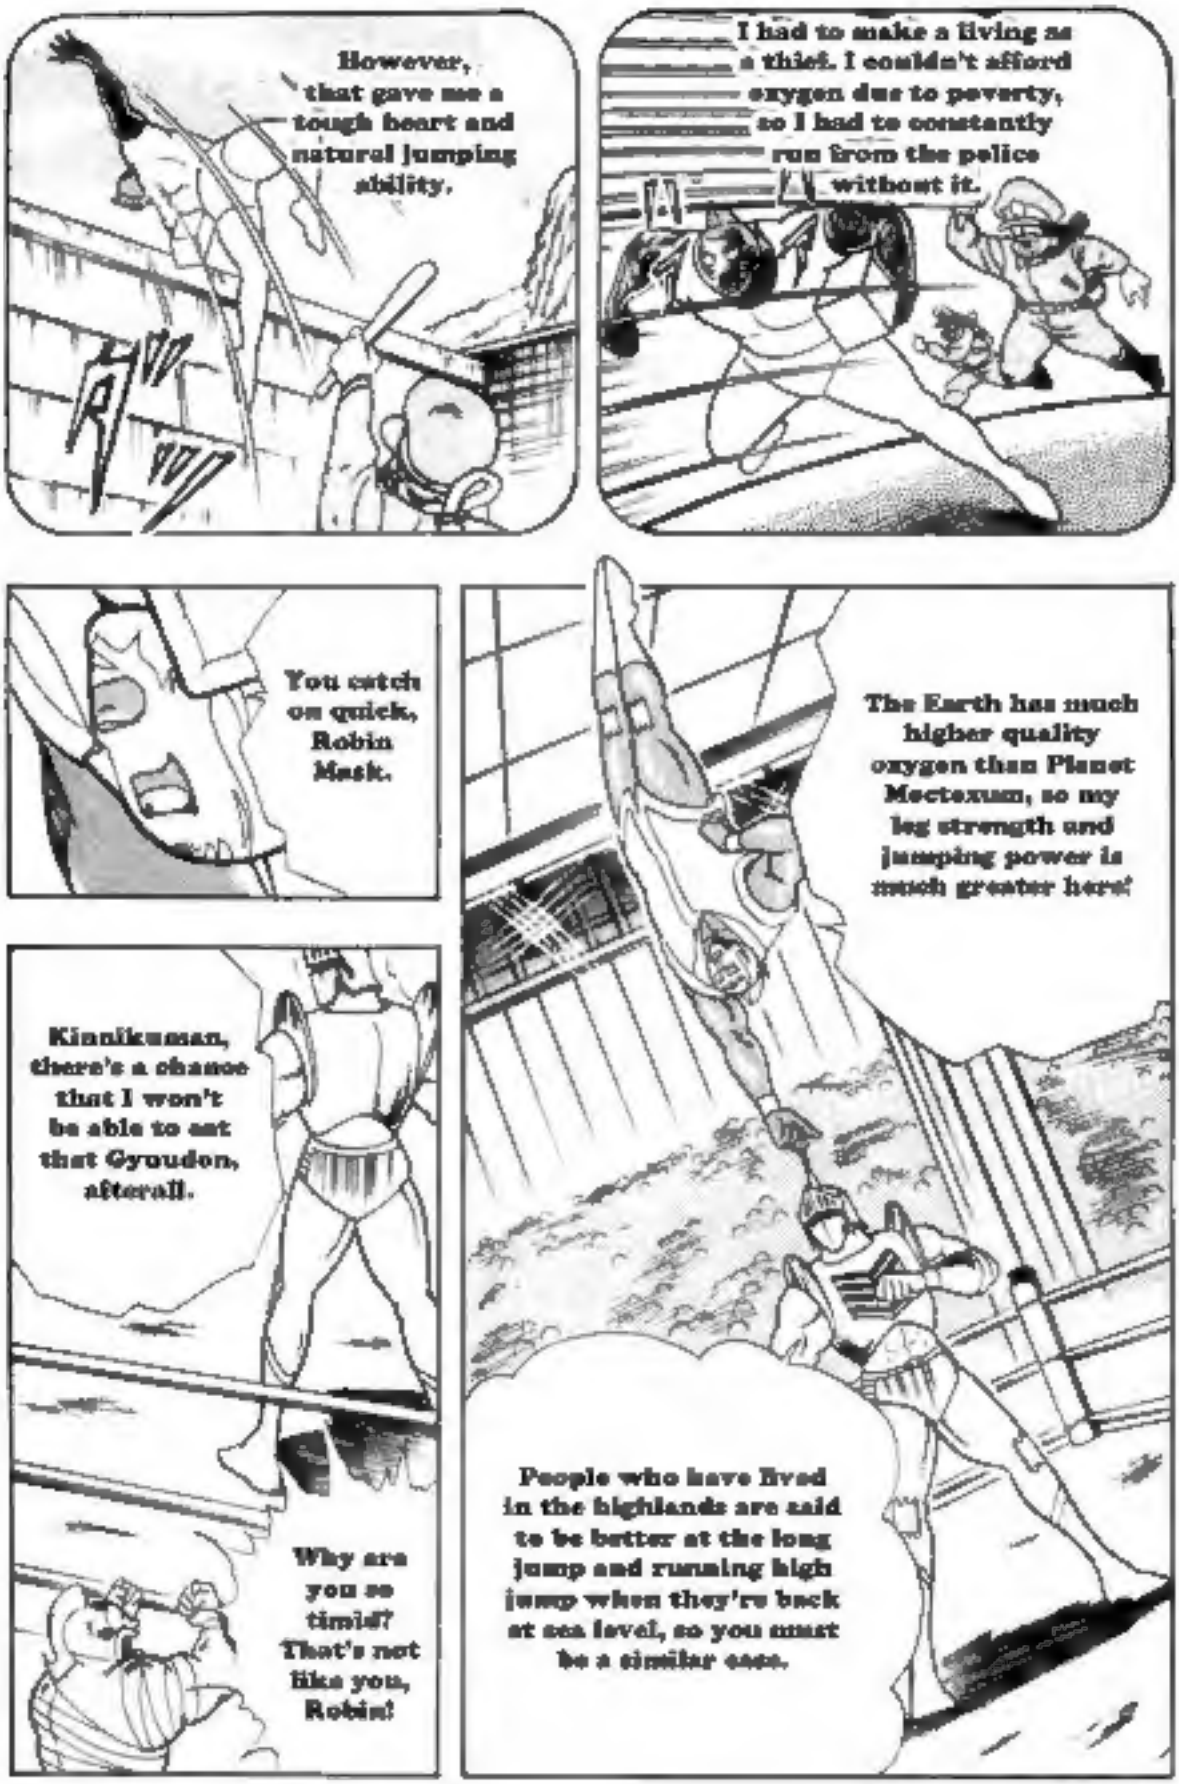
Aah!

Planet Moctezuma, where I was born and raised, is a planet with only half of the oxygen of Earth or Planet Kinniku. Since even a short walk can damage you due to the increased rate of breathing, you're not allowed to do intense activity without a flask of oxygen.
WEAR YOUR FLASK



However, that gave me a tough heart and natural jumping ability.
I had to make a living as a thief. I couldn't afford oxygen due to poverty, so I had to constantly run from the police without it.
You catch on quick, Robin Mask.
The Earth has much higher quality oxygen than Planet Mectexum, so my leg strength and jumping power is much greater here!
Kinnikuman, there's a chance that I won't be able to eat that Gyuudon, afterall.
Why are you so timid? That's not like you, Robin!
People who have lived in the highlands are said to be better at the long jump and running high jump when they're back at sea level, so you must be a similar case.

Do you know about the Finishing Hold Fiasco in the Great Kinniku Fresco?

There's another one?

Kinnikuman, in order to be qualified for the throne, you need to win this Survival Match. However, do you know the other qualification to prove you're the real heir?

Hey Suguru, you're the prince of Planet Kinniku, yet you don't even know about that!?

Finishing Hold Fresco?

It is law that whoever is to become king of Planet Kinniku must master these three special techniques.

Created over many long years by our ancestors on Planet Kinniku, the Finishing Hold Fresco was drawn on the wall to show the three best special techniques that exist.

ゴォ

That said, I also tried many times, but couldn't master them.

However, all three of these special techniques required such a high level of skill that not even those who got the throne could master even one of them.

...that person would be the true heir without question!

However, if anyone in this Survival Match could master even on of those techniques...

So, what would you do if I told you that I had mastered one of them?

!!

Robin's body is quickly being pushed under.

That technique! It's one of the moves drawn on the Finishing Hold Fresco: The Muscle Revenger!
